

Contents

Acknowledgements	9
RICCA EDMONDSON AND HENRIKE RAU
Introduction: Arguing about the Environment –What Difference Does Culture Make?	11
 Part I: Intercultural Clashes
SYLVIA KRUSE
Structuring Multiple Perspectives in Environmental Decision-Making: Flood Protection in the Middle-Elbe Region	37
MARK GARAVAN
Problems in Achieving Dialogue: Cultural Misunderstandings in the Corrib Gas Dispute	65
 Part II: Effects of Cultures on Meaning in Environmental Debate
HENRIKE RAU
Environmental Arguing at a Crossroads? Cultural Diversity in Irish Transport Planning	95
LISA MORAN
Local Knowledge and Conceptions of Neighbourliness in Environmental Disputes: Evidence from Connemara	125

Part III: Cultural Diversity and Environmental Policy

LIU WEI

- Environmental Argumentation and Political Sensibility:
The Case of China 153

FRANCES FAHY

- Dwelling on Waste: Participatory Action Research and Managing Household Waste in Galway 177

Part IV: Environmental Argument and Cultures of the Body

PERRY SHARE AND OLIVER MOORE

- Bringing Outside Environmental Knowledge In:
Food and Eating 205

WALTER WORTBERG

- Environmental Medicine and Health in Industrialised Nations:
Cases from Germany 233

Part V: Culture, Art and Argumentation

RUAIRÍ O'BRIEN

- Intercultural Interpretations: Not Wasting Wasteland 261

CHEN HONG

- Species Conflict as Cultural and Moral Conflict:
Reflections on Chinese Readers' Responses to The Wolf Totem 287

Part VI: Arguing for Change

KEVIN RYAN

Environmental Conflict and Democracy:

Between Reason and Hegemony

307

RICCA EDMONDSON

Intercultural Rhetoric, Environmental Reasoning and

Wise Argument

337

RENATE KÜNST

Postscript: Ecological Debate and Interculturality

365

Notes on Contributors

369

Index

375