

Contents

Illustrations	vii
Authors	viii
Acknowledgements	x
About the Cover	xi
Introduction	xii

PART I

Alternative knowledge	1
------------------------------	----------

1	Paradigm plurality and its prospects	3
2	Organizational knowledge: production and consumption	14
3	Escaping the confines of organization theory (with Ian Atkin)	31

PART II

Alternative concepts	43
-----------------------------	-----------

4	Actor-networks and sociological symmetry (with Christine McLean)	45
5	Fluidity and identity (with Beverly Metcalfe)	72
6	Time and temporality	85
7	Decoration and disorganization (with Stella Minahan)	96
8	Governmentality and networks	111

PART III

Alternative methodology 127

- 9 Actor-networks, research strategy and organization
(with Nick Lee) 129

- 10 Rethinking triangulation 141

- 11 Critical retrospective research 157

- 12 Concluding remarks: an agenda for future alternative organization studies 171

Notes 178

Bibliography 182

Index 215

Illustrations

Figures

2.1	Postmodernist discourses	28
8.1	Government reports — discursive pattern	123
10.1	Stances for triangulation: possibilities and impossibilities	148

Tables

11.1	Comparison of positions on retrospective research	168
------	---	-----