

Contents

I. Introduction

Tom H. A. van der Voort & Peter Winterhoff-Spurk Recent Trends in European Media Psychology	1
---	---

II. Media Appreciation and Use

Barrie Gunter An Audience-Based Approach to Assessing Programme Quality	11
---	----

Uli Gleich Parasocial Interaction with People on the Screen	35
---	----

Sonia Livingstone Changing Audiences for Changing Media: A Social Psychological Perspective	56
--	----

Roland Mangold The Contribution of Media Psychology to User-Friendly Computers: A Proposal for Cooperative Work	73
--	----

III. Aggressive and Emotional Reactions

Tom H. A. van der Voort & Johannes J. W. Beentjes Effects of Extremely Violent Audiovisual Products on Young People's Aggressive Behavior and Emotional Reactions	87
--	----

Peter Winterhoff-Spurk Violence in TV News: The Cultivation of Emotions	105
---	-----

Peter Vitouch Psychophysiological Methods in Media Research	116
---	-----

Gary Bente & Peter Vorderer

The Socio-Emotional Dimension of Using Screen Media.

Current Perspectives in German Media Psychology 125

IV. Language Acquisition and School Performance

Géry d'Ydewalle & Ubolwannana Pavakanun

Could Enjoying a Movie Lead to Language Acquisition 145

Uwe Hasebrink, Margie Berns & Ewart Skinner

The English Language Within the Media Worlds of European Youth 156

Johannes W. J. Beentjes & Tom H. A. van der Voort

The Impact of Background Media on Homework Performance:

Students' Perceptions and Experimental Findings 175

V. Contemplative Contributions

J. Mallory Wober

Sovereignty and Citizenship: Realms of Schizoid Perception

in Britain in Relation to Television's Mediation of Europe 191

Liliane Lurçat

Les Effets Violents de la Television 208

The Authors 215