

Contents

Foreword	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
1 Introduction: Hip-Hop, College Students, and Campus Life	1
2 Entering the Cipher: Methods, Approaches, and Sketches of the Settings	13
3 Welcome to the Underground: Hip-Hop Places and Spaces Around Campus	29
4 “Hip-Hop is Like Breathing”: Aesthetics, Applications, and Conflicts on Campus	53
5 “I Look at Hip-Hop as a Philosophy”: Edutainment, Sampling, and Classroom Practices	71
6 Knowing What’s Up and Learning What You’re Not Supposed To: The Parameters of Critical Consciousness in Black, White, and Brown	89
7 Lessons from the Underground: A Model for Understanding Hip-Hop in Students’ Lives	107
Notes	117
References	121
Index	127