

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| Foreword | vii |
| Kenneth Thompson | |
| Contributors | xii |
| 1 Introduction: Bringing moral panic studies into focus Sean P. Hier | 1 |
| Part 1: Conceptualizing moral panic studies | 17 |
| 2 Grounding and defending the sociology of moral panic Erich Goode and Nachman Ben-Yehuda | 20 |
| 3 Locating moral panics within the sociology of social problems Joel Best | 37 |
| 4 Fractious rivals? Moral panics and moral regulation Alan Hunt | 53 |
| 5 Shifting the focus?: Moral panics as civilizing and decivilizing processes Amanda Rohloff | 71 |
| Part 2: Examining moral panic studies | 87 |
| 6 The objectification of fear and the grammar of morality Frank Furedi | 90 |

| | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 7 | How emotions matter to moral panics Kevin Walby and Dale Spencer | 104 |
| 8 | Folk devils reconsidered Mary deYoung | 118 |
| 9 | The duality of the devil: Realism, relationalism and representation James Meades | 134 |
| | Part 3: Applying moral panic studies | 153 |
| 10 | Panic, regulation, and the moralization of British law and order politics Dan Lett, Sean P. Hier, Kevin Walby, and André Smith | 155 |
| 11 | Drunken antics: The gin craze, binge drinking and the political economy of moral regulation Chas Critcher | 171 |
| 12 | The artful creation of global moral panic: Climatic folk devils, environmental evangelicals, and the coming catastrophe Sheldon Ungar | 190 |
| 13 | When harm is done: Panic, scandal and blame Graham Knight and Juliet Roper | 208 |
| 14 | The unhealthy risk society: Health scares and the politics of moral panic Daniel Béland | 224 |
| | Index | 236 |