

Contents

Preface	vii
Introduction: Understanding Korean Myths	1
The Korean gods	11
Myths about Cosmology and Flood	19
1. The Formation of Heaven and Earth	21
2. Shoot for a Sun, Shoot for a Moon	28
3. A Man and a Woman Who Became the Gods of the Sun and the Moon	38
4. Origin of the Seven Stars of the Great Bear	42
5. The Great Flood	51
Myths about Birth and Agriculture	55
6. The Grandmother Goddess of Birth	57
7. Chach'öngbi, Agriculture Goddess	62
8. Ch'ilsöng, Grain Protection Goddess	83
9. Tanggüm-aegi and the Three Chesök Gods	90
Myths about the Messengers of the Underworld	129
10. Samani Lived Three Thousand Years	131
11. Sama Changja and His Scapegoat Horse	137
12. Kangim Went down to the Underworld to Capture the King of Hades	145
Myths about Shamans	167
13. Paridegi, Goddess Who Guides Dead Souls to the Underworld	169
14. The Three Brothers Who Became Shamans to Save Their Mother	189
15. If You Are a Big Shaman, Do You Have a Miraculous Virtue?	205
Myths about Disease	209
16. Kaksi Sonnim, the Smallfox Goddess	211
17. A Benefit for All Sick Children	227

Myths about Good Fortune	233
18. Kamŭnjang-agi, the Goddess of Good Fortune	235
19. Onŭli, the Goddess of Fortune-telling	243
Myths about Love and Family	249
20. Bride Ch'ŏngjŏng; Her Sacrificial Death for Love	251
21. Hallakkungi, the Flower Warden God in the Sŏch'ŏn Flower Garden	258
22. The House God and the House-site Goddess	264
Myths about the Gods of Village Shrines	277
23. The Snake Goddess Migrated to Cheju Island	279
24. Gods Protecting a Village	284
25. Cheju Island's Divine Gods	290
26. Sir Paekju and Sir Kŭmsang, Witchcrafters	292
Myths about Heroes	301
27. A Hero Who Killed Poly-headed Generals	303
28. Kunung, the Warrior God of Preventing Misfortune	309
29. Tribute of One Hundred Head of White Horses	311
30. General Paek, Lake Ch'ŏnji Protecting God on Mount Paekdu	315
Further reading	319