

Contents

List of boxes	vi
List of case studies	vii
List of figures	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
List of abbreviations	xiii
General introduction	1
Part I Approaching the City	7
1 From binaries to intersections	9
2 Historical trends in cities and urban studies	31
3 Trends in urban restructuring, gender and feminist theory	64
4 Scale, power and interdependence	97
Part II Gender and the Built Environment	125
5 Infrastructures of daily life	127
6 Migration, movement and mobility	157
7 Homes, jobs, communities and networks	186
Part III Representation and Regulation	217
8 Planning and social welfare	219
9 Urban poverty, livelihood and vulnerability	247
10 Cities and gender – politics in practice	282
Appendix	297
Bibliography	301
Index	352

Boxes

1.1	Standpoint	11
1.2	Everyday life	13
1.3	Multiple economies	25
2.1	Modernity	48
2.2	Modernisation theory	49
3.1	Economic restructuring	66
3.2	Structural Adjustment Programmes	72
3.3	What is feminism?	82
3.4	Practical and strategic gender interests	90
4.1	Determinants of globalisation	101
4.2	Characterising a world city	107
5.1	Infrastructures of everyday life	132
6.1	Automobility	165
7.1	Identity	188
7.2	Emotion-work	198
8.1	Gender mainstreaming	221
8.2	Governance	223
9.1	Examples of different types of assets	257
10.1	Anti-feminist backlash	288

Case studies

1.1	Archives as 'peep holes' into gendered urban development	20
1.2	Underground economy taps into illegal workers	26
2.1	When the lights go out, students take off to the airport	39
2.2	Fortress communities in developing countries	45
2.3	Contested utopia: Vanport	51
2.4	Streets, bedrooms and patios	60
3.1	From hobnails to kinky boots	69
3.2	The wages puzzle facing African urban families	75
3.3	The shrinking household	78
3.4	Transnational families	79
4.1	The 'global intelligence corps'	105
4.2	Isabel Dyck: feminist geography, the 'everyday' and local-global relations	110
4.3	Murder and mutilation in Basra and Guatemala	112
4.4	Observing gendered power in household practices in the USA	118
4.5	Household 'voice' in Lucknow, India	121
5.1	Perspectives on domestic architecture: from Victorian feminism to big-box consumption	138
5.2	Gender, ethnicity and bicycle travel: Yasmin's story	140
5.3	Nicaraguan bureaucracy – a poverty tax?	142
5.4	An older-person-friendly city centre	146
5.5	Anne Karpf's watch battery dilemma: introducing time-geography	147
5.6	Three-block fathers: mental maps of protective parenting in Chicago's South Side	152
6.1	Gender, generation, mobility and care	161
6.2	The hypermobile cosmocrat	169
6.3	Living together apart	173
6.4	Gendered work in and around Masaya, Nicaragua	175
6.5	Young women's experience of harassment on city buses in India	178
6.6	Modern slavery?	183
7.1	Cathy Come Home	194
7.2	Home as dependence for Rhema – Mwanza City, Tanzania	195
7.3	Contemporary consumer culture and the birthday party circuit	200

7.4	The corrosion of home–work–life balance in Silicon Valley	206
7.5	Activist mothering	212
8.1	Changing gender contracts in self-help housing	226
8.2	The Poppy Project	231
8.3	Alternative planning visions	237
8.4	Women, participation and urban governance: the case of Porto Alegre, Brazil	240
9.1	Adverse labour market inclusion in Kabul	253
9.2	SPARC, NSDF and Mahila Milan: working with slum dwellers in Mumbai	254
9.3	Challenging gender norms in Cairo to improve young women's lives	266
9.4	Empowerment and employment in Dhaka	270
9.5	Through thick and thin: gender and social exclusion in French suburbs	275
9.6	The struggle to get by in low-wage America	277

Figures

1.1	Profile of the 'gherkin' against the London skyline	21
1.2	Statue of King Dom Jose, Lisbon	22
1.3	Statue 'Meeting Place', London	23
2.1	The mega-city sprawl of Favela La Rocinha, Rio de Janeiro	38
2.2	'Married but not monogamous'; Gay Pride march, New York City	41
2.3	Gated community, Spain	43
2.4	Gated community, UK	44
2.5	Hull House, Chicago, 2008	57
3.1	North African street market	76
3.2	Women out in the streets of Kabul in full burkha	77
4.1	Global brand names, Centro Comercial Los Procere, Guatemala City	102
4.2	Woman in indigenous costume selling vegetables outside the central market, Guatemala City	103
4.3	Kylie-mania at the Victoria and Albert Museum, London	114
4.4	Representing the fun of the fair with body-builders and bikinis	115
5.1	The daily work of fetching water in Kabul	129
5.2	Park closed at night, Chicago	145
5.3	Signs of exclusion, 'no gays', Guatemala City	145
5.4	Fear of crime exacerbated by poorly designed public open space, Chicago	153
6.1	Automobility in Bangkok: congested roads	159
6.2	Time-space prisms for two Newcastle upon Tyne households – showing mobility constraints associated with gender and class divisions	163
6.3	Physical limits on mobility for mothers caring for young children, Newcastle upon Tyne public transport	168
6.4	Common assault: crowded city buses in Guwahati, Assam	179
7.1	Scaling the heights on low wages, male window cleaners abseiling, Chicago	189
7.2	Sexist signs to convey emotion-work: secretarial college, Chicago	190
7.3	Variations on the post-modern home (1), waterfront apartments in Chicago	191
7.4	Variations on the post-modern home (2), village-like condominiums in Portland, Oregon	192

8.1	Placard Waving garment industry workers, San Francisco	234
8.2	Logo resistance: women's liberation T-shirt, San Francisco	235
8.3	Mom's Rising: activist mothering publicity materials	239
9.1	Street vendors in Bangkok	259
9.2	Sustainable livelihoods framework	262
9.3	Poverty and vulnerability in Kabul	272