

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgements	xvi

Introduction: setting the scene	1
Emma Björner and Per Olof Berg

PART I CHINESE MEGA-CITIES IN THE MAKING: POLICIES AND GOVERNANCE

1. Developing and branding a polycentric mega-city: the case of Shanghai	21
Yuan Ren and Per Olof Berg
2. Governing by the state: a study of the literature on governing Chinese mega-cities	42
Wing-Shing Tang
3. Urban brand systems: an example from the Bohai Sea Economic Zone	64
Feng Xu, Qiulin Lu, Rui Qi and Jing Li
4. Branding sustainable cities in China: global standards and local specificities	78
Yu Wang-Védrine
5. Promoting mega-city development through metropolitan governance: the case of the Pearl River Delta region	91
Lin Ye and Guangming Zhang

PART II CITY BRANDING AND POSITIONING: PRACTICES, PRINCIPLES AND PROFESSIONS

6. Imagineering Chinese mega-cities in the age of globalization	106
Emma Björner
7. City branding in China: practices and professional challenges	121
Chunying Wen and Xin Sui

8.	Strategic communication of mega-city brands: challenges and solutions Hong Fan	132
9.	Branding city destinations: experiences of two metropolises in China: Hangzhou and Xi'an Mimi Li, Bihu Wu and Bailu Li	145
10.	(Failed) mega-events and city transformation: the green vision for the 2004 Olympic village in Stockholm Paul T. Levin and Sofie Pandis Iveroth	155
11.	Heritage's place: heritage narratives in Chinese city promotional films Marina Svensson	168
12.	Open sourcing the city brand Martin Kornberger	180
PART III POSITIONING CITIES: PERFORMANCE, DISTINCTIVENESS AND IMAGINARIES
13.	Catwalking the city Orvar Löfgren	195
14.	Innovation branding for FDI promotion: building the distinctive brand Cecilia Pasquinelli	207
15.	Place-based brands: product origin, brand channels and global circuits Dominic Power, Johan Jansson and Xiucheng Fan	220
16.	The making of the copy-cat city: accreditation tactics in place branding Can-Seng Ooi	232
17.	Climate change politics and Hangzhou's 'green city making' Jørgen Delman	249
	Conclusion: branding a different species of cities? Per Olof Berg and Emma Björner	262
	Index	289