

Contents

List of Figures	vii
Notes on Contributors	ix
Acknowledgments	xv
Introduction: Connectivity and the Postglobal Moment: (Dis)connections and Social Change in Africa	1
Mirjam de Bruijn and Rijk van Dijk
1 Flows and Forces: Once Contained, Now Detained? On Connections Past and Present in Rwanda	21
Danielle de Lame
2 Research Practice in Connections: Travels and Methods	45
Mirjam de Bruijn and Inge Brinkman
3 Patriarchy Turned Upside Down: The Flight of the Royal Women of Kom, Cameroon from 1920 to the 1960s	65
Walter Gam Nkwi
4 Beyond the Last Frontier: Major Trollope and the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel	81
Jan-Bart Gewald
5 The "Victorian Internet" Reaches Halfway to Cairo: Cape Tanganyika Telegraphs, 1875–1926	95
Neil Parsons
6 Marriages and Mobility in Akan Societies: Disconnections and Connections over Time and Space	123
Astrid Bochow
7 A Ritual Connection: Urban Youth Marrying in the Village in Botswana	141
Rijk van Dijk

vi • Contents

8	Connecting Communities and Business: Public-Private Partnerships as the Panacea for Land Reform in Limpopo Province, South Africa Marja Spierenburg, Ben Cousins, Angélique Bos, and Lubabalo Ntsholo	161
9	Connectivities Compared: Transnational Islamic NGOs in Chad and Senegal Mayke Kaag	183
10	Love Therapy: A Brazilian Pentecostal (Dis)connection in Maputo Linda van de Kamp	203
11	Ajala Travel: Mobility and Connections as Forms of Social Capital in Nigerian Society Oka Obono and Koblowe Obono	227
12	Connecting "Ourselves": A Dogon Ethnic Association and the Impact of Connectivity Walter E. A. van Beek	243
13	Intimate Strangers: Connecting Fiction and Ethnography Francis B. Nyamnjoh	265
	Index	289