
Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction Neil Gregor, Nils Roemer, and Mark Roseman	1
One: Germans of the Jewish Stamm: Visions of Community between Nationalism and Particularism, 1850 to 1933 Till van Rahden	27
Two: Identity and Essentialism: Race, Racism, and the Jews at the Fin de Siècle Yfaat Weiss	49
Three: Prussia at the Margins, or the World That Nationalism Lost Helmut Walser Smith	69
Four: Völkisch-Hztion\z\isxa and Universalism on the Margins of the Reich: A Comparison of Majority and Minority Liberalism in Germany, 1898-1933 Eric Kurlander	84
Five: "Volksgemeinschaften unter sich": German Minorities and Regionalism in Poland, 1918-39 Winson Chu	104
Six: A Margin at the Center: The Conservatives in Lower Saxony between Kaiserreich and Federal Republic Frank Bösch	127

Contents

vi

Seven: "Black-Red-Gold Enemies": Catholics, Socialists, and Jews in Elementary Schoolbooks from Kaiserreich to Third Reich	146
Katharine Kennedy
Eight: "Productivist" and "Consumerist" Narratives of Jews in German History	165
Gideon Reuveni
Nine: How "Jewish" is German Sexuality? Sex and Antisemitism in the Third Reich	185
Dagmar Herzog
Ten: Defeated Germans and Surviving Jews: Gendered Encounters in Everyday Life in U.S.-Occupied Germany, 1945-49	204
Atina Grossmann
Eleven: Afro-German Children and the Social Politics of Race after 1945	226
Heide Fehrenbach
Twelve: The Difficult Task of Managing Migration: The 1973 Recruitment Stop	252
Karen Schönwälder
Thirteen: How and Where Is German History Centered?	268
Geoff Eley
Contributors	287
Index	291

PPN: 254721028

Titel: German history from the margins ; edited by Neil Gregor - Indiana University Press

Bloomington, Ind. [u.a.] 2006

ISBN: 0-253-34743-2hbk. : £32.00 : CIP entry (June)

Bibliographischer Datensatz im SWB-Verbund