

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction 1

PART ONE: PRAXIS OF FRIENDSHIP

1. Epistemic Friendships: Collective Knowledge-Making through Transnational Feminist Praxis 11

Nicole Nguyen, A. Wendy Nastasi, Angie Mejia, Anya Stanger, Meredith Madden (Postscript by Chandra Talpade Mohanty)

2. Meditations on Friendship: Politics of Feminist Solidarity in Ethnography 43

Azza Basarudin and Himika Bhattacharya

PART TWO: GENDER, NATION, SOLIDARITY

3. Bridging the Divide in Feminism with Transcultural Feminist Solidarity: Using the Example of Forging Friendship and Solidarity between Chinese and U.S. Women 71

Yuanfang Dai

4. For Sister or State? Nationalism and the Indigenous and Bengali Women's Movements in Bangladesh 91

Kabita Chakma and Glen Hill

5. Solidarity through Dissidence: Violence and Community in Indian Cinema 117

Alka Kurian

PART THREE: NEOLIBERALISM, AGENCY, FRIENDSHIP

6. Kinship Drives, Friendly Affect: Difference and Dissidence
in the New Indian Border Cinema 143

Esha Niyogi De

7. The Space Between Us: Reading Umrigar and Sangari
in the Quest for Female Friendship 160

Elora Halim Chowdhury

8. Who Are "We" in the Novel? 182

Shreerekha Subramanian

PART FOUR: FRIENDSHIP ACROSS BORDERS

9. A Spirit of Solidarity: Transatlantic Friendships among Early Twentieth-century Female Peace Activists (Wilpfers) 203

Laurie R. Cohen

10. The Dissidence of Daily Life: Feminist Friendships and the Social Fabric of Democracy 221

Lori E. Amy and Eglantina Gjermeni

Contributors 241

Index 247