

Contents

	List of Illustrations	vii
	Preface by Michael Stewart	ix
	Acknowledgements	xiii
1	Introduction	1
	Eastern European Communities: Peasants, Identities, and the Transition	4
	Roma: Persistence, Personhood, and the Underclass	16
2	The Setting: Religious and Ethnic Divisions in Romania	43
	A Religious History of Romania	44
	The Ethnographic Setting	59
	The Village	62
3	Rituals in the Village: Strengthening Local Community	73
	Baptism: Good Kirve	74
	Confirmation: Masking Ethnic Differences	88
	Burial: Rural Civility	95
	Conclusion	104
4	Rituals of Personhood: Oath-Taking and the Maintenance of the Moral Self	107
	The Weight of Words	108
	A Life-Crisis Ritual: The Oath	110
	Structures of the Oath	112
	Conclusion	119
5	Conversions: Narratives, Sincere Hearts, and Other Signs	121
	Conversion Narratives: Symbolic Transformation of the Person	122
	Reluctant Convert: Caught in Family Ties	128
	Refusal: John 3:4-7 in a Romungro Settlement	132

	Sincerity, the Heart, and Other Tangible Signs	136
	Brotherhood: A New Form of Spiritual Kinship	142
	Conclusion	144
6	Revitalisations: Spirit in Heart, Nation in Village	147
	The Holy Spirit as a Source of Mobilisation	148
	The Destiny Conference	149
	Testimony with Reference to Genesis 9:20-25	153
	Village Days	158
	Conclusion	163
7	Media Events: Transformation of the Postsocialist Public Sphere	165
	The Gypsy Kings	167
	Media Events	171
	Reflections	179
8	Conclusion	183
	Bibliography	189
	Appendix: Transcripts of Narratives	219
	Index	225