

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments	ix
PART I. MAJORITY RULES: "MINORITIES" AND THE MEDIA	1
1. Diversity in the Land of Majority Rule	3
Who Are the Minorities?	5
Population Projections	9
The Racial and Cultural Mix: From Melting Pot to Minorities to Multiculturalism	17
Growing Racial and Ethnic Diversity: An International Phenomenon	19
The Future of the Multicultural United States	23
Are the Media Maximizing the Opportunity Created by the Increasing Racial and Ethnic Diversity?	26
2. Do the Media Matter?	35
The Functions of Media in Society	36
The Mass Media	41
Do the Media Matter?	46
News Coverage and Mob Violence	47
The Influence of the Media on Bigotry	52
How Do the Media Matter?	59
From Mass Media to Class Media	59
PART II. RACIALISM IN ENTERTAINMENT PORTRAYALS	63
3. The Roots of Racial Stereotypes in American Entertainment	65
The History and Stereotyping of People of Color in the United States	66
The Beginnings of Mass Entertainment: Racialism on Stage	72
Racialism in the Movies	74

The Changes in Racial Stereotyping During Hollywood's Heyday	78
The Shameful Legacy of Racial Stereotyping in Entertainment Media	85
4. Stereotypes Extend Into Television and the Video Age	87
Portrayals of People of Color in American Entertainment Media Since World War II	87
TV Portrayals: The First 50 Years	98
Racial Imagery in the Video Age	107
Stereotypes in Video Games	108
Audience Demand Can Affect Change	109
PART 111. RACIALISM IN PUBLIC COMMUNICATION	113
5. The Press: A Legacy of Exclusion	115
Phases and Patterns in the Treatment of People of Color in News Media	117
Obstacles to Multiracial News Coverage	124
Newsroom Policy and Race	128
Taking 'Time Out' to Improve News Accuracy	133
6. Advertising: The Media's Not-So-Silent Partner	137
Advertising and Media in the Land of Plenty	138
Race and Ethnicity in Advertising	140
Advertising Images: Protests and Progress	144
Integration in Advertising	151
Mining Multicultural Markets	159
Advertising Ethics and Ethnic Media	161
7. Public Relations: Influencing the Content of the Media	169
Diversity and Room for Growth	169
Women of Color in Public Relations	171
Why Public Relations Needs People of Color	175
The Influence of Public Relations on News Media	176
Diversity in Public Relations	178
An Agenda for Diversity in Public Relations Education	182
An Agenda for Diversity in the Public Relations Field	183
PART IV. WOMEN OF COLOR IN THE MEDIA	189
8. Women of Color: Two Strikes and ... ?	191
Breaking the Barrier: Black Women Rise to the Top	192
Sex, Servants, and Stereotypes: Latinas in the Media	196

From Geisha Girl to Woman Warrior: Cashing In on the Asian Mystique	201
Newswomen of Color	204
Newsroom Power and Practices: Perpetuating Inaccurate Portrayals	210
Power and Positions: Diversity in the Evening News	215
 PART V. STRATEGIES FOR DEALING WITH RACIALLY INSENSITIVE MEDIA	223
9. Access: Toward Diversity With (Un)Deliberate Speed	225
Discrimination in the Film and Television Entertainment Industries	225
The Racial Composition of the News Media Workforce	229
The Recruitment and Retention of People of Color	232
21st Century Discrimination	239
10. Advocacy: Pressuring the Media to Change	245
Challenging Bias in Broadcasting	249
Expanding Multiculturalism in the Newspaper Industry	254
The Impact of Professional Organizations of People of Color in the Media	257
Advocacy in the Entertainment Industry	257
Advocacy in Education	258
Confronting the Status Quo and Increasing Multiculturalism in the Media	261
11. Alternatives: Colorful Firsts in Class Communication	263
Communication Before the Europeans	263
Early Printing in America	266
The First Latino Newspaper: El Misisipf in 1808	269
The First Black Newspaper: Freedom's Journal in 1827	273
The First Native American Newspaper: The Cherokee Phoenix in 1828	276
The First Asian Pacific American Newspaper: The Golden Hills' News in 1854	280
Similarities in the First Newspapers of People of Color	286
 PART VI. THE RISE OF CLASS COMMUNICATION	291
12. 21st-century Challenges and Opportunities	293
The Growth of Racial Diversity	294
The Technological Advances in Communication Media	295

The Targeting of Audience Segments by the Media	297
The Communication Media and the Segmented Society	299
New Opportunities: The Rise of Class Communication	301
Controlling the Destiny of Communication Media	302
Segmented Media: Are We Losing the Common Culture That Bonds Us?	304
Suggested Readings	309
Online Resources	313
Index	319
About the Authors	325