

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
Introduction: Why Media Nations?	1
1 Mediating Nationhood: Connecting Culture and Power	9
The Legacy of Imagined Communities	11
Defining Nationalism: Discourse, Legitimacy and Power	17
The Media and Nationalism: Imagined Communities and Facilities of Mass Communication	21
2 Media Nations in a Globalized World	26
Globalization, Nation-states and Nationhood	29
Globalization, Nationalism and Economy	32
Globalization, Nationalism and Politics	36
Globalization, Nationalism and Culture	38
3 Media Nations and Alternative Modernities	45
Alternative Modernities	49
Alternative Models of Mass Communication	58
4 Mediated Grammars of Nationhood	70
Explaining Nationalism: Economy, Politics, Culture	71
Multiple Routes to Nationhood, Multiple Media Nations	75
Economic Liberalization, Democratization and Media Nations	83
Mediated Grammars of Nationhood Today: Nations of Consumers	92
5 Media Nations at War	95
Hot and Banal Nationalism	96
Between the Nation and the Public	98

The Yugoslav Wars	103
The 9/11 Attacks	110
6 The Gendered Order of Media Nations	119
The Gendered Order of Nationhood, Multiple Modernities, and Media Nations	122
Mediating Socialist Womanhood: Women's Emancipation and the Double Burden	125
The Mediation of Indian Womanhood: Between Modernity and Authenticity	131
Women's Liberation, Mediated Nationhood and War	136
7 Times of the Media, Times of Nations	142
Media Nations and Time: Between the National and the Global	145
Media Nations, Temporal Orders and Visions of Modernity	149
Mediating National Memories in Times of War	157
8 Media Nations, Cultural Diversity and Cosmopolitanism	165
Between Equality and Unity: Types of Nationalism, Forms of Belonging and Approaches to Cultural Diversity	167
Mediating Cultural Diversity: The Ills and Gains of Public Sphericules	172
National Public Spheres and Cosmopolitan Connections	179
Bibliography	188
Index	215