

International Media Monitoring

edited by Kaarle Nordenstreng
University of Tampere

Michael Griffin
University of St. Thomas

HAMPTON PRESS INC.
CRESSKILL, NEW JERSEY

Contents

Foreword, John Eldridge	ix
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgements	xix
List of Contributors	xxi
PART I: MONITORING MEDIA PERFORMANCE	1
1. Toward Global Content Analysis and Media Criticism Kaarle Nordenstreng	3
2. Prospects for Media Monitoring: Much Overdue, But Never Too Late Johan Galtung	15
3. On Evaluating Media Performance in the Public Interest: Past and Future of a Research Tradition Denis McQuail	25
4. An Audit of Democracy: Media Monitoring, Citizenship, and Public Policy Derek Edwards, Peter Golding, Dennis Howitt, Shelley McLachlan, and Katie Macmillan	39

PART II: THE SHIFTING GLOBAL MEDIA ENVIRONMENT	57
5. Comparative Analysis of International News Flow: An Example of Global Media Monitoring Annabelle Sreberny and Robert Stevenson	59
6. National Autonomy and Global News Flows: CNN in Israel During the Gulf War Michael Griffin and Simon Kagan	73
7. The Meaning of Modernization: U.S. Media and the Sandinista Story Oddgeir Tveiten	95
8. Journalistic Norms and Forms of Cross-National Imagery: How U.S. News Magazines Photographed Tiananmen David D. Perlmutter	123
PART III: AFRICA	143
9. Touring Disaster: American Television Coverage of Famine in the Horn of Africa Jo Ellen Fair and Paula Chakravartty	145
10. "Rambo" in Somalia? A Critical Look at Media Coverage of Operation Restore Hope Rune Ottosen	163
PART IV: WOMEN	197
11. The Global Media Monitoring Project: Women's Networking for Research and Action Margaret Gallagher	199
12. Casting and Fate: Women and Minorities on Television Drama, Games Shows, and News George Gerbner	219
PART V: HUMAN RIGHTS	241
13. News Coverage of Human Rights Jay S. Ovsiovitch	243
14. Media Monitoring and Individual Duties under International Law Cees J. Hamelink	263

PART VI: RACE AND ETHNICITY	275
15. Media, Ethnicity, and the Construction of Difference: Monitoring the Impact of the Media in a Multi-Ethnic World John D. H. Downing and Charles Husband	277
16. Media, Racism and Monitoring Teun A. van Dijk	307
17. Race, Nation, and News in the United States Hemant Shah	317
PART VII: VIOLENCE	333
18. Profiling Television Violence George Gerbner, Michael Morgan, and Nancy Signorielli	335
19. Monitoring "Reality" Television: The National Television Violence Study D. Charles Whitney, Ellen Wartella, Dominic Lasorsa, and Wayne Danielson	367
PART VIII: ELECTIONS	385
20. Monitoring Election Coverage in CEE and the CIS Yasha Lange	387
21. Monitoring the South African Media: The Shift from Apartheid Propaganda to the Truth Commission John van Zyl and Lara Kantor	407
Author Index	427
Subject Index	434