

Socially Constructing Communication

Edited by

Gloria J. Galanes

Missouri State University

and

Wendy Leeds-Hurwitz

University of Wisconsin-Parkside

HAMPTON PRESS, INC.
CRESSKILL, NJ 07626

Contents

Series Editor's Preface	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
About the Contributors	xi
Communication as Social Construction: Catching Ourselves in the Act Gloria Galanes and Wendy Leeds-Hurwitz	1

Part I: Overview

1 Creating Opportunities for Social Construction: The Albuquerque NCA Summer Institute Shawn Spano, Karen A. Foss and Kris Kirschbaum	13
2 Communication and Social Construction: Claiming our Birthright W. Barnett Pearce	33
3 Social Construction Without Dualism: Repairing the Ruptures and Making Connections Vernon E. Cronen	57

Part II: A Reconnaissance of Social Construction in the Discipline

4 Social Construction: Moving From Theory to Research (and Back Again) Wendy Leeds-Hurwitz	99
5 Social Construction Approaches: Programs, Courses, Pedagogical Exercises Gloria J. Galanes	135
6 Social Construction in Applied Communication Kenneth N. Cissna	175
7 Exploring the Role of Communication in Transforming Conflict Situations: A Social Construction Approach Linda L. Putnam	189

Part III: Reflection on the 2006 Conference

8	Reflections and Recommendations From the Conference John Stewart	213
9	Tracing Our Steps Through Communication Social Construction: Six Propositions for How to Go On Mariaelena Bartesaghi and Theresa Castor	225
10	Socially Constructing the Communication Theory Classroom: A Case Study Isabelle Baumann	245
11	Basics of Social Construction Research J. Kevin Barge	263
12	Reclaiming Democracy: Contributions from a Communication Perspective Kimberly A. Pearce and W. Barnett Pearce	287
13	Constructing a Division Brenda Allen, Jay Baglia, and Karen Zediker	309
	Author Index	319
	Subject Index	329