

DISEASES & DIAGNOSES

THE SECOND AGE OF BIOLOGY

SANDER L. GILMAN

Transaction Publishers
New Brunswick (U.S.A.) and London (U.K.)

Contents

Introduction: On “Race,” Sex, and Beauty in Historical Perspective	1
1. Race (Again) and Medicine (Again): The Jews and Alcoholism	19
2. What is the Color of the Gonorrhea Ribbon? Stigma, Sexual Diseases, and Popular Culture in the Twenty-First Century	49
3. Nietzsche, Bizet, and Wagner—Illness, Health, and Race in the Nineteenth Century	83
4. Are You Just What You Eat? Ritual Slaughter and the Politics of National Identity	105
5. Imagining Glamour in the Age of Aesthetic Surgery	127
6. Sigmund Freud, Electrotherapy, and the Voice	159
7. Psychoanalysis, Medicine, and the Body in the Time of Freud and Brill	197
8. The Practical Aspect of Culture in Illness—Bilingualism in the World of Health and Illness	209
Index	223