

Contents

Contributors, xi

Introduction: Searching for Strategy in an Age of Peacebuilding, 3
Daniel Philpott

1. Strategic Peacebuilding: An Overview, 19
John Paul Lederach and R. Scott Appleby
2. Strategic Peacebuilding: Concepts and Challenges, 45
Peter Wallensteen
3. The Evaluation of Peacebuilding Initiatives: Putting
Learning into Practice, 65
Hal Culbertson
4. Reconciliation: An Ethic for Peacebuilding, 91
Daniel Philpott
5. Whose Strategy, Whose Peace? The Role of International
Institutions in Strategic Peacebuilding, 119
Simon Chesterman
6. How Strategic Is UN Peacebuilding? 141
Nicholas Sambanis
7. Targeted Sanctions, Counterterrorism, and Strategic
Peacebuilding, 169
George A. Lopez and David Cortright

8. Peace and Justice? The Contribution of International Judicial Processes to Peacebuilding, 189
Robert C. Johansen
9. Human Rights and Strategic Peacebuilding: The Roles of Local, National, and International Actors, 231
Naomi Roht-Arriaza
10. Economic Globalization and Strategic Peacebuilding, 247
Jackie Smith
11. The Response Imperative: Tensions and Dilemmas of Humanitarian Action and Strategic Peacebuilding, 271
Larissa Fast
12. Turning from Hatred to Community Friendship: Forgiveness Education as a Resource for Strategic Peacebuilding in Postaccord Belfast, 291
Robert D. Enright, Jeanette Knutson Enright, and Anthony C. Holter
13. Religion and Peacebuilding, 317
Gerard F. Powers
- Conclusion: Strategic Peacebuilding beyond the Liberal Peace, 353
Oliver P. Richmond
- Index, 369