

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Sharia Dynamics and the Anthropology of Islam	1
	Timothy P. Daniels
Part I	Sharia and Discursive Tradition	29
2	Fatwa, Discursivity, and the Production of Sharia	31
	Omer Awass
3	Fatwās on Mohamed Bouazizi’s Self-Immolation: Religious Authority, Media, and Secularization	63
	Ahmad Najib Burhani
4	Sharia Law and Muslim Ethical Imaginaries in Modern Indonesia	91
	Robert W. Hefner
Part II	Sharia, State, and Society	117
5	Sharia in China: Compromising Perceptions	119
	James D. Frankel

6	Interplay of Sharia Projects: Between Ketuanan Melayu , Islam, and Liberal Rights in Malaysia Timothy P. Daniels	141
Part III Sharia and Gender		169
7	Gendered Accounts of Expertise Within Islamic Finance and Financialization in Malaysia Laura Elder	171
8	The Difficulty of Accounting for Women Who Critique Sharia in Northern Nigeria Sarah Eltantawi	203
9	Islamic Movements, Women, and Social Reform: Who Speaks of the Sharia in Pakistan? Meryem F. Zaman	223
Part IV Sharia and Religious Pluralism		251
10	You Are Not a Muslim: Ahmadiyya Exclusion and Sharia Interpretation in Pakistan Wajeeha Ameen Malik	253
11	Anwar and Maqasid : Forging a Muslim Democracy Charles Allers	279
12	A Veneer of Unity? Islam and a Culture of Inclusion in Sabah David J. Banks	303
References		325
Index		357