

Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Preface | vii |
| Introduction – Negotiating Asymmetry: Parents, Brothers, Friends and Enemies Anthony Reid | 1 |

Part One: Alternative Asian World Orders

| | |
|---|----|
| 1. Small States and the Search for Sovereignty in Sinocentric Asia: Japan and Korea in the Late Nineteenth Century Seo-Hyun Park | 29 |
| 2. Between Tribute and Treaty: Sino-Siamese Relations from the Late Nineteenth Century to the Early Twentieth Century Junko Koizumi | 47 |
| 3. Operated by World Views and Interfaced by World Orders: Traditional and Modern Sino-Vietnamese Relations Alexander L. Vuving | 73 |

Part Two: New Perspectives in Changing Asia

| | |
|---|-----|
| 4. Dealing with the Dragon: The China Factor in Myanmar's Foreign Policy Maung Aung Myoe | 95 |
| 5. Visions of History, Trajectories of Power: China and India since Decolonisation Prasenjit Duara | 119 |

Part Three: The Long March from Empire to Nation

| | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 6. | China's Re-interpretation of the Chinese "World Order", 1900–40s Kawashima Shin | 139 |
| 7. | The "Peaceful Rise of China" after the "Century of Unequal Treaties": Will History Matter? Zheng Yangwen | 159 |
| 8. | Mediating Chinese-ness: Identity Politics and Media Culture in Contemporary China Anbin Shi | 192 |
| 9. | Family and Friends: China in Changing Asia Wang Gungwu | 214 |
| | Bibliography | 232 |
| | Contributors | 250 |
| | Index | 254 |