

Contents

List of illustrations	ix
Notes on editors	xi
Notes on contributors	xiii
Preface: negotiating religion at the 'godless institution on Gower Street'	xvii

Introduction: negotiating religion – a reflexive approach Lois Lee	1
--	---

PART I

Negotiating religion: historical trajectories 17

1 Negotiating religion: historical trajectories François Guesnet	19
2 Negotiating religious difference in early modern Europe: ecclesiastical, political and social processes Benjamin J. Kaplan	31
3 Negotiating under duress: the expulsion of Salzburg Protestants (1732) and the Jews of Prague (1744) François Guesnet	47

PART II

Negotiating religion in constitutional politics and political philosophy 63

4 Negotiating religion in constitutional politics and political philosophy Cécile Laborde	65
5 Can there be a public reason of the heart? Albert Weale	77

- 6 The ethics of establishment: fairness and human rights as different standards of neutrality 95
Saladin Meckled-Garcia
- 7 Alternative futures for formal church establishment: two case studies from the UK 115
Robert M. Morris

PART III

Everyday negotiations: religion in urban life 137

- 8 Everyday negotiations: religion in urban life 139
Claire Dwyer
- 9 Creating religious homes in London: sacralising space in a deeply globalised city 151
John Eade
- 10 Community organising, democratic citizenship and interfaith relations 169
Luke Bretherton

PART IV

Negotiating with religion from a legal perspective 191

- 11 Negotiating with religion from a legal perspective 193
Myriam Hunter-Henin
- 12 Believing in negotiation: reflection on law's regulation of religious symbols in state schools 207
Myriam Hunter-Henin
- 13 New issues for negotiation: schools and religious freedom 227
Lucy Vickers

* * *

- 14 Regulating religious diversity in liberal societies 245
Maleiha Malik

Index 261