

Contents

Preface xi

SECTION 1

Theories and Methods in Deviance Studies 1

Chapter 1: Views of Deviance 3

- Introduction 4
- Blurred Boundaries: The Drama of Deviance 4
- Deviance as Demonic 6
- Deviance as Psychotic 8
- Deviance as Exotic 10
- Deviance as Symbolic Interaction: A Sociological Approach 12
 - Social Acts 13
 - Focus on Observable Behavior 14
 - Symbolic Interaction 16
- The Sociological Promise 17
- Summary 18
- Keywords 19

Chapter 2: Getting Close to Deviance 21

- Blurred Boundaries I: Getting Close to Deviance 22
- Sociology as a Mode of Inquiry 23
- Counting Deviants 25
 - Value of Surveys and Official Statistics 25
 - Limitations of Official Statistics 26
 - Counting Rape and Sexual Assault 27
 - Official Statistics as Organizational Processes 29
 - Summing Up the Numbers 31
- Challenges of Deviance Ethnography 32
 - Focus of Deviance Ethnography 33
 - Gaining Access 34
 - Getting People to Open Up 36
 - Fieldwork Roles 37
 - Getting Along in the Field 39
 - Collecting Data 41

- Narrative Analysis 42
- Understanding Social Worlds Different from Our Own 43

- Getting the Big Picture: Sociohistorical Comparison 45
- Blurred Boundaries II: How Close is too Close? 46
- Summary 47
- Keywords 48

Chapter 3: Positivistic Theories of Deviant Behavior 49

- Blurred Boundaries I: Why is Mike in Jail? 50
- Introduction to Positivistic Theories 51
- Biological Theories of Deviance 53
 - Lombroso's Italian School of Positivist Criminology 53
 - Biological Theories in Twentieth-Century America 54
 - Critique and Further Directions 55
- Social Structural Theories 57
 - Social Disorganization Theory 57
 - Critique and Further Directions 59
 - Anomie Theory 61
 - Durkheim's "Anomie" 61
 - Merton's "Social Structure and Anomie" 62
 - Critique and Further Directions 64
- Socialization Theories 66
 - Differential Association Theory 67
 - Sutherland's Key Principles 68
 - Critique and Further Directions 69
 - Social Learning Theory 70
 - Critical Evaluation 71
- Social Control Theories 71
 - Social Bond Theory 73
 - Self-Control Theory 74
 - Critical Evaluation 75
- Blurred Boundaries II: "Influences" versus "Causes" 76
- Summary 77
- Keywords 78

Chapter 4: Symbolic Interactionist/Social Constructionist Perspective 81

Blurred Boundaries I: Consensus and Conflict in Constructing Deviants 82

The Roots of Symbolic Interaction: The Social Self 83

Labeling Theory and Social Construction 84

Social Construction of Deviance Categories 87

Resource Mobilization and Deviance Framing 88

Resource Mobilization 88

Deviance Framing 89

Credibility 90

Atrocity Tales 90

Cultural Resonance 91

Initial Rule-Breaking and Primary Deviance 93

Primary versus Secondary Deviance 93

Biography and Effective Environment 94

Techniques of Neutralization 96

The Roles of Others 97

Turning On 97

Limits of Voluntary Choice 97

Processing Deviants 98

Stereotyping and Master Statuses 99

Institutionalizing Deviance 100

Typifications and Recipe Knowledge 101

Stigmatization and Resistance 103

Stigmatization and Role Engulfment 104

Stigma Management and Resistance 105

Stigma Management among the Discreditable 106

Stigma Management among the Discredited 106

In-Group Stigma Management 108

Blurred Boundaries II: Framing Surprising

Alliances 109

Summary 111

Keywords 111

SECTION 2

High Consensus Criminal Deviance 115

Chapter 5: Murder 117

Blurred Boundaries I: Two Convicted Murderers 118

Current Constructions of Murder in the United States 119

Types of Murder 120

Statistical Snapshot 121

Challenges in Researching Murder 122

Counting Murder 122

Getting Close 123

Cross-Cultural Constructions of Murder 125

Different Definitions 125

Different "Causes" 125

Different Responses 127

History of Murder in the United States 128

Early America 129

Whites and Native Americans 129

Whites and Slaves 129

White-on-White Murder 130

Civil War to World War I 130

Post-World War II 132

Landscape of Murder in the New Millennium 133

Social Capital and Homicide 133

Interactional Contexts and Ethnographic Voices 135

Character Contests: Six Stages 136

Stage One: Personal Offense 137

Stage Two: Assessment 137

Stage Three: Retaliation 137

Stage Four: Working Agreement 138

Stage Five: Battle 138

Stage Six: Resolution 138

Contemporary Responses to Murder 139

Punitive Responses 140

Contextual Responses 141

Stigma Management and Resistance 143

Blurred Boundaries II: Is Assisted Suicide Murder? 145

Summary 146

Keywords 147

Chapter 6: Rape 149

Blurred Boundaries I: Two Sexual Assaults 150

Current Constructions of Rape in the United States 152

Types of Rape 152

Statistical Snapshot 153

Challenges in Researching Rape 154

Counting Rape 154

Getting Close 155

Cross-Cultural Constructions of Rape 157

Different Definitions 157

Different "Causes" 159

Different Responses 160

History of Rape in the United States 161

Early America 162

Post-Civil War Era 163

Feminist Era: 1960s–Present 164

Rape Proclivity and Routine Activity Theories 165

Interactional Contexts and Ethnographic Voices 167

Stranger Rape 167

Phase One: Preexisting Life Tensions 167

- Phase Two: Transformation of Motivation into Action 168
- Phase Three: Perpetrator–Victim Confrontation 168
- Phase Four: Situation Management 169
- Phase Five: Disengagement 169

- Party Rape 170

- Contemporary Responses to Rape 171

- Identifying and Processing Rapists 171

- Treatment of Rape in the Courts 172

- Stigma Management and Resistance 174

- Blurred Boundaries II: What is Too Drunk to Say Yes? 177

- Summary 178

- Keywords 179

Chapter 7: Financially Motivated Crime in the Streets 181

- Blurred Boundaries I: Two Thieves 182

- Current Constructions of Street-level Property

- Crimes in the United States 184

- Types of Street-level Property Crime 184

- Statistical Snapshot 185

- Challenges in Researching Street-level Property Crimes 186

- Counting Street-level Property Crime 186

- Getting Close 187

- Cross-Cultural Constructions of Street-level Property Crime 189

- Different Definitions 189

- Different “Causes” 191

- Different Response 192

- History of Street-level Property Crimes in the United States 194

- Merton’s Social Structure and Anomie 196

- Interactional Contexts and Ethnographic Voices 196

- Contemporary Responses to Street-level Property Crime 202

- Stigma Management and Resistance 205

- Blurred Boundaries II: A College Education for Prisoners? 207

- Summary 208

- Keywords 210

Chapter 8: White-Collar Crime 211

- Blurred Boundaries I: Two White-Collar Crimes 212

- Current Constructions of White-Collar Crimes in the United States 214

- Types of White-Collar Crime 214

- Statistical Snapshot 216

- Challenges in Researching White-Collar Crime 217

- Counting Crime in the Suites 217

- Getting Close 219

- Cross-Cultural Constructions of White-Collar Crime 220

- Different Definitions 221

- Different “Causes” 222

- Different Responses 223

- History of White-Collar Crime in the United States 224

- Rise of the Robber Barons 225

- Progressive Era and Regulatory Control 226

- White-Collar Crime in the United States Today 228

- Merton’s Social Structure and Anomie 230

- Interactional Contexts and Ethnographic Voices 231

- Contemporary Responses to White-Collar Crime 234

- Stigma Management and Resistance 237

- Blurred Boundaries II: Should Michael Milken Get a Presidential Pardon? 239

- Summary 240

- Keywords 241

SECTION 3

Lifestyle Deviance 243

Chapter 9: Alcohol Abuse 245

- Blurred Boundaries I: Two Faces of Problem Drinking 246

- Current Constructions of Alcohol Abuse in the United States 247

- Types of Alcohol Abusers 247

- Statistical Snapshot 248

- Challenges in Researching Alcohol Abuse 249

- Counting Alcohol Abuse 249

- Getting Close 250

- Cross-Cultural Constructions of Alcohol Abuse 251

- Different Definitions 252

- Different “Causes” 252

- Different Responses 253

- History of Problem Drinking in the United States 254

- Pioneer America 254

- The Road to Prohibition 255

- The Medicalization of Problem Drinking 257

- The Age of Ambivalence 258

- Social Learning Theory and Alcohol Abuse 258

- Interactional Contexts and Ethnographic Voices 260

- College Binge Drinker 261

The Alcoholic	262
Drunk Drivers	264
Contemporary Responses to Problem Drinking	265
Punitive/Treatment Response	265
Contextual Responses	266
Stigma Management and Resistance	269
In-Group Strategies	269
Out-Group Strategies	269
Alcoholics Anonymous and Identity Transformation	270
Blurred Boundaries II: Contextual Responses to College Drinking	272
Summary	274
Keywords	275
Chapter 10: Drug Abuse	277
Blurred Boundaries I: Two Drug Abusers	278
Current Constructions of Drug Abuse in the United States	280
Types of Drug Use and Abuse	280
Statistical Snapshot	281
Challenges in Researching Drug Abuse	281
Counting Illegal Drug Use	282
Getting Close	283
Cross-Cultural Constructions of Drug Abuse	284
Different Definitions	285
Different "Causes"	285
Different Responses	286
History of Drug Abuse in the United States	287
Unregulated Early America	287
Road to Punitive Prohibition	288
The War on Drugs	290
Social Learning Theory and Drug Abuse	292
Interactional Contexts and Ethnographic Voices	293
Marijuana	294
Hard "Street" Drugs	294
Contemporary Responses to Drug Abuse	297
Punitive Prohibition and Reducing Supply	298
Drug Courts	299
Harm Reduction	301
Stigma Management and Resistance	302
In-Group Stigma Management	302
Out-Group Stigma Management	303
Collective Action	305
Blurred Boundaries II: Is It Time to Legalize Drugs?	306
Summary	307
Keywords	308

Chapter 11: Sex Work	311
Blurred Boundaries I: The Street Prostitute and the Playboy College Girl	312
Current Constructions of Sex Work and Pornography in the United States	314
Types of Sex Work	314
Statistical Snapshot	315
Challenges in Researching Sex Work	316
Counting Sex Work	316
Getting Close	317
Cross-Cultural Constructions of Sex Work	319
Different Definitions	319
Different "Causes"	320
Different Responses	321
History of Sex Work in the United States	322
Antebellum America and the Wild West	322
The Gilded Age of US Prostitution	323
The Great Social Evil	324
The Internet Era	325
Merton's Anomie and Social Learning Theories	326
Interactional Contexts and Ethnographic Voices	327
Prostitution	327
Street Prostitution	328
Massage Parlors and Brothels	329
Escort Services	330
Dancing for Dollars	331
Oppression and Empowerment Paradigms	334
Contemporary Responses to Sex Work	335
Policing Prostitution	335
Rehabilitation Programs	336
Legalization and Regulation	337
Stigma Management and Resistance	337
Techniques of Neutralization	337
Living in the Closet	338
Stigma Management with Customers	338
Mutual Support	339
Coming Out of the Closet and Collective Action	339
Blurred Boundaries II: The John Shaming Debate	341
Summary	343
Keywords	344
 SECTION 4
Status Deviance	345
Chapter 12: Mental Illness	347
Blurred Boundaries I: Two Faces of Mental Illness	348

Current Constructions of Mental Illness in the United States	350	Cross-Cultural Constructions of Obesity and Eating Disorders	390
Statistical Snapshot	350	Different Definitions	390
Challenges in Researching Mental Illness	351	Different "Causes"	391
Counting Mentally Illness	351	Different Responses	392
Getting Close	353	History of Obesity and Eating Disorders in the United States	393
Cross-Cultural Constructions of Mental Illness	354	Colonial America	394
Different Definitions	354	Rise of the Antifat Campaign	394
Different "Causes"	355	Fat in the Feminist Era	396
Different Treatments	356	Calories In-Calories Out and Self-Control Theory	398
History of Mental Illness in the United States	357	Interactional Contexts and Ethnographic Voices	400
Era of the Asylum	357	Dieting and Fitness Programs	402
Deinstitutionalization Era	359	Facing Failure	403
Antidepressant Era	360	The Costs of Weight Obsession	404
Social Stress Theory	360	Contemporary Responses to Obesity	405
Interactional Contexts and Ethnographic Voices	361	Weight-Loss and Fitness Industry	406
Alienation from Place	363	Medical Drugs	407
Definitive Outburst	363	Surgery	407
Help-Seeking	364	Social Policy and Government Regulation	408
The Medication Experience	364	Stigma Management and Resistance	409
Depression and Medication	365	Weight-Loss Support Groups	409
Schizophrenia and Medication	366	Challenging Frames	410
Hospitalization	367	Blurred Boundaries II: Banning Weight Discrimination in the Workplace	412
Contemporary Responses to Mental Illness	369	Summary	413
Community Care?	369	Keywords	414
Criminalization of Mental Illness	370	Chapter 14: LGBTQ Identities	417
Mental Health Courts	372	Blurred Boundaries: Two Stories of Same-Sex Attraction	418
Stigma Management and Resistance	374	Current Constructions of LGBTQ Identities in the United States	420
In-Group Stigma Management	374	Statistical Snapshot	421
Out-Group Strategies	376	Challenges in LGBTQ Research	422
Collective Action	377	Counting LGBTQ Identities and Sexual Behavior	422
Blurred Boundaries II: A Hyper Child of Your Own	378	Getting Close	423
Summary	379	Cross-Cultural LGBTQ Constructions	424
Keywords	380	Different Definitions	424
Chapter 13: Obesity and Eating Disorders	383	Different "Causes"	425
Blurred Boundaries I: Two "Fat" People	384	Different Responses	427
Current Constructions of Obesity and Eating Disorders in the United States	385	LGBTQ History in the United States	428
Types of Obesity and Eating Disorders	386	Early American Secrecy	428
Statistical Snapshot	386	1890s to World War II	429
Challenges in Researching Obesity and Eating Disorders	388	The Cold War on Homosexuals	430
Counting Obesity and Eating Disorders	388	Era of Collective Action and Conservative Responses	431
Getting Close	389	A Post-Gay Era?	433

The Limits of Positivistic Approaches	435	Blurred Boundaries II: "Gay" or "Straight"?	447
Interactional Contexts and Ethnographic Voices	436	Summary	447
Straight Gay Sex Today	436	Keywords	449
Coming Out	438
Contemporary Responses to LGBTQ Issues	441	References	451
Stigma Management and Resistance	443	Index	469