

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Notes on contributors	xii

1 Sex, gender, and sexuality in Renaissance Italy: themes and approaches in recent scholarship Jacqueline Murray and Nicholas Terpstra	1
--	---

PART I

Sex, order, and disorder	19
---------------------------------	-----------

2 The lord who rejected love, or the Griselda story (X, 10) reconsidered yet again Guido Ruggiero	21
3 Sexual violence in the Siennese state before and after the fall of the republic Elena Brizio	35
4 In the neighborhood: residence, community, and the sex trade in early modern Bologna Vanessa McCarthy and Nicholas Terpstra	53
5 Though popes said don't, some people did: adulteresses in Catholic Reformation Rome Elizabeth S. Cohen	75

PART II

Sense and sensuality in sex and gender 95

- 6 "Bodily things" and brides of Christ: the case of the early seventeenth-century "lesbian nun" Benedetta Carlini 97
Patricia Simons
- 7 In bed with Ludovico Santa Croce (1557) 125
Thomas V. Cohen
- 8 Aesthetics, dress, and militant masculinity in Castiglione's
Courtier 141
Gerry Milligan
- 9 The sausage wars: or how the sausage and carne battled for gastronomic and social prestige in Renaissance literature and culture 160
Laura Giannetti

PART III

Visualizing sexuality in word and image 181

- 10 Gianantonio Bazzi, called "Il Sodoma": homosexuality in art, life, and history 183
James M. Saslow
- 11 Vagina dialogues: Piccolomini's Raffaella and Aretino's
Ragionamenti 211
Ian Frederick Moulton
- 12 Giovan Battista della Porta's erotomantic art of recollection 227
Sergius Koderá
- 13 "O mie arti fallaci": Tasso's saintly women in the Liberata
and Conquistata 247
Jane Tylus
- Bibliography of Konrad Eisenbichler's publications on sex and gender* 268
- Index* 271