

Contents

---

Liner Notes: Introducing a 20-Year Reflection.....	ix
M. Billye Sankofa Waters

Side A | Power of Rhetoric and Verse

Track 1	Hard Rock (The Truth about Jezebel) .....	3
Grisel Y. Acosta
Track 2	Examining Linguistic Continuity and the Richness and Multidimensionality of Black Atlantic Communicative Practices through the Lyricism of Lauryn Hill. ....	5
Adrienne R. Washington and Diana A. Burnett
Track 3	Blackgirl Praxis through Rhetorical Architecture: An Ethnopoetic Reading of Miseducation .....	23
Qiana M. Cutts
Track 4	Black Feminist Rhetorical Praxis: The Agency of Holistic Black Women in Lauryn Hill's The Miseducation of Lauryn Hill and Contemporary Works .....	41
Alexis McGee

Side B | Unconditional Love

Track 5    Give Me My Crooked Crown Momma ..... 57
              Aja D. Reynolds

Track 6    Nothing but Us ..... 65
              Grisel Y. Acosta

Track 7    Care for Me: One Black Girl’s Road to Acknowledging the Ex-Factor..... 67
              Dawn N. Hicks Tafari and Nwachi G. E. Tafari

Track 8    Revolution Mami ..... 73
              Grisel Y. Acosta

Track 9    The Rhetoric of the Womb: (Academic) Mothering in Trying Times on the Road to Zion ..... 75
              Raven Jones Stanbrough and Ashley Newby

Track 10    Forgive Them Father for They Know Not What They Do...
              But What If They Do Know?!: The Impact of Unforgivable
              Whiteness on Black and Brown Women ..... 87
              Geneva L. Sarcedo and Cheryl E. Matias

Side C | Space for Self

Track 11    My Sister, Myself: Why the Miseducation of Black Girls
              Requires Spaces and Places for Their Healing ..... 101
              Sherell A. McArthur

Track 12    Saving Me Softly: A Black Girl in Japan..... 113
              Nazera Sadiq Wright

Track 13    Father, You Saved Me ..... 125
              Sarah Abdelaziz

Track 14    “Somebody/anybody, sing a black girl’s song”:
              The Miseducation of Lauryn Hill as Blackgirl Autoethnography ..... 131
              Robin M. Boylorn

Track 15    Tell Me Who I Can Be: Mentoring Queer Black
              Girls in Hostile Educational Spaces ..... 143
              Torie Weiston-Serdan

Side D | Higher/Education

Track 16 Fantasy, Reality, and What Is Needed: Debunking Fantasy and Centering Truth in Black Women College
Students' Experiences..... 157
Nadrea R. Njoku, Shawna M. Patterson-Stephens, Lori D. Patton,
Maurisa Li-A-Ping, and Ellise Smith

Track 17 Lauryn Hill and the Power of Digital Storytelling in Writing Classrooms..... 171
Jessica Edwards

Track 18 Lauryn Hill and Pedagogies of Critical Hip-Hop..... 183
David Green

Track 19 The Miseducation Was Ms. Lauryn Hill's Education:
The Inspiration and Activism of an Emcee..... 197
Tara Betts

Track 20 Forgive Them: The Silencing of Black Women in Graduate School ..... 211
Shanyce L. Campbell

Track 21 A Re-Storying of the Academy by the Lost Ones ..... 223
ReAnna S. Roby and Elizabeth J. Cook

Side E | Clapback, Praxis, and Solidarity

Track 22 Black Feminist Auto-Ethnography on Black
Womanhood across Space..... 239
Tanja Burkhard and Valerie Kinloch

Track 23 Wrecking Patriarchy and Capitalism in Lauryn Hill's Hip Hop ..... 253
Stephanie Troutman and Eric A. House

Track 24 The Hill from Whence My Help Comes: Black Women
Rapping and Preaching Activism and Liberation ..... 263
Conā S. M. Marshall

Track 25 Negotiating Complicated Relationships with Misogynoir in Hip Hop..... 273
Marta Mack-Washington, Magaela C. Bethune, and Ahmad R. Washington

Track 26	Lessons from a Black Feminist Critical Scholar .....	295
	Lauren Leigh Kelly
Track 27	Practice Extending across the Atlas: Black Girls’ Geographies in Settler Societies. ....	305
	Stephanie Latty, Sefanit Habtom, and Eve Tuck
Contributors	.....	315