

Contents

List of Illustrations x

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction xiii

Amy Lonetree and Amanda J. Cobb

CONVERSATION 1: HISTORY AND DEVELOPMENT

1. A New Thing?

The National Museum of the American Indian
in Historical and Institutional Context 3

Ira Jacknis

2. Decolonizing the “Nation’s Attic”

The National Museum of the American Indian and the Politics of Knowledge-Making in a National Space 43

Patricia Pierce Erikson

3. Concourse and Periphery

Planning the National Museum of the American Indian 84

Judith Ostrowitz

CONVERSATION 2: INDIGENOUS METHODOLOGY AND COMMUNITY COLLABORATION

4. Critical Reflections on the Our Peoples Exhibit

A Curator’s Perspective 131

Paul Chaat Smith

5. Collaborative Exhibit Development at the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian 144
Cynthia Chavez Lamar

6. The Making of Who We Are Now Showing at the National Museum of the American Indian Lelawi Theater 165
Beverly R. Singer

CONVERSATION 3: INTERPRETATIONS AND RESPONSE

7. Gym Shoes, Maps, and Passports, Oh My!
Creating Community or Creating Chaos at the National Museum
of the American Indian? 181
Elizabeth Archuleta

8. "Indian Country" on the National Mall
The Mainstream Press versus the National Museum
of the American Indian 208
Aldona Jonaitis and Janet Catherine Berlo

9. What Are Our Expectations Telling Us?
Encounters with the
National Museum of the American Indian 241
Gwyneira Isaac

10. No Sense of the Struggle
Creating a Context for Survivance at the National Museum
of the American Indian 267
Sonya Atalay

11. (Un)disturbing Exhibitions
Indigenous Historical Memory at the National Museum
of the American Indian 290
Myla Vicenti Carpio

12. "Acknowledging the Truth of History"
Missed Opportunities at the
National Museum of the American Indian	305
Amy Lonetree

CONVERSATION 4: QUESTIONS OF NATION AND IDENTITY

13. The National Museum of the American Indian
as Cultural Sovereignty	331
Amanda J. Cobb

14. Performing Reconciliation at the
National Museum of the American Indian
Postcolonial Rapprochement and the
Politics of Historical Closure	353
Pauline Wakeham

15. "South of the Border"
at the National Museum of the American Indian	384
Robin Maria DeLugan

16. Inside Out and Outside In
Re-presenting Native North America at the Canadian Museum of Civilization and the National Museum of the American Indian	405
Ruth B. Phillips

17. The National Museum of the American Indian
and the Siting of Identity	431
Mario A. Caro

The Contributors	449
Index	455