

CONTENTS

Introduction
Carl Sterkens & Paul Vermeer .....		7
Chapter 1	Plurality and the future of interreligious conflict in the Netherlands: a sociological exploration
Paul Vermeer .....		13
Chapter 2	Controversies over Islam in the Dutch public domain: deep structures in Church and State relationships
Sophie van Bijsterveld .....		33
Chapter 3	“Rice and Rice with Sambal”. Indonesians and Moluccans in the Netherlands
Frans Wijzen & Jeniffer Vos .....		53
Chapter 4	The out-group who are no longer the out-group
Fatma Agca and Ahmet Kaya .....		73
Chapter 5	Latent conflict between ethno-religious groups in the Philippines
Menandro Abanes, Agnieszka Kanas & Peer Scheepers .....		87
Chapter 6	Interreligious contact and out-group trust: Findings from conflict and non-conflict regions in Indonesia and the Philippines
Agnieszka Kanas, Peer Scheepers & Carl Sterkens .....		121
Chapter 7	Beyond conflict: understanding the de-privatisation of religion from the social capital of religious migrants’ organisations
Jorge Castillo Guerra .....		147
Chapter 8	Hermeneutic dimensions in interreligious learning among Christian and Muslim adults in the Netherlands
Mijke Jetten & Carl Sterkens .....		169
Authors		199