
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Table of Cases	ix
Table of Legislation	xvii

1. Citizenship, Crime and Community in the European Union.....	1
Introduction.....	1
Citizenship, Crime and Community: A Communitarian Account of the Criminal Law	2
The Role of the European Union in Criminal Law.....	10
Citizenship in the Union – A Short History.....	14
Conclusion: Method and Structure	20

PART I EU CITIZENSHIP: BETWEEN TRANSNATIONAL AND SUPRANATIONAL

2. The Transnational Dimension of EU Citizenship.....	29
Introduction.....	29
Free Movement and Transnational Citizenship as a Status of Autonomy	31
Names and Civil Status	32
Family Reunification	37
Non-discrimination and Transnational Citizenship as a Status of Integration.....	43
Union Citizenship and as a Status of Integration and the Court of Justice	44
EU Citizenship and as a Status of Integration and the Legislature	50
Conclusion: EU Citizenship as a Transnational Status – Between Autonomy and Integration.....	53
3. The Supranational Dimension of EU Citizenship	57
Introduction.....	57
The Establishment of an Autonomous Supranational Status: Rottmann and Zambrano	58
Retrenchment: An Ill-Defined and Insubstantial Substance	61
The Re-emergence of Supranational Citizenship	63
Conclusion: A Right to a Place and a Place of Rights	65

PART II SOCIAL INTEGRATION AND CRIME: INCLUSION AND EXCLUSION

4. Social Integration – I. Rehabilitation and Inclusion.....	75
Introduction: Rehabilitation and Social Integration	75
The Transformation of the Nationality Exception.....	77
Subject of the Exception: From Nationals to EU Citizens	79
Justification: From Nationality to Rehabilitation	81
The Framework Decision on the Transfer of Sentences	84
External Transfer and the Principle of Social Integration	86
Conclusion: National Responsibility for a Supranational
Interest	91
5. Social Integration – II. Wrongdoing and a Supranational Duty
of Respect	96
Introduction: Integration, Rights and Duties.....	96
Crime as Wrongdoing: Expulsion.....	99
The Traditional View: Public Policy as Risk Minimisation	99
Public Security as Values	103
Wrongdoing and Integration: Residence Rights.....	109
Conclusion: A Supranational Duty of Respect towards National
Communities	115
National Communities	115
A Supranational Duty	119

PART III AN AREA OF JUSTICE: SHARED ENFORCEMENT AND SHARED RECOGNITION OF NATIONAL WRONGS

6. An Area of Justice – I. The European Arrest Warrant as a Transnational Calling to Account: Shared Citizenship, Shared Rights and Shared
Wrongs	125
Introduction: Shared Enforcement.....	125
Legitimising Criminal Law: Three Dimensions.....	127
Legitimising Shared Enforcement I: Shared Citizenship.....	129
Abolition of the Nationality Exemption.....	129
Union Citizenship and a Single Area of Justice.....	131
Legitimising Shared Enforcement II: Shared Wrongs.....	135
Abolition of Double Criminality	135
Legitimising Shared Enforcement III: Supranational Rights	141
Legitimacy and Rights	141
Conclusion: Transnational Enforcement in a Supranational
Space.....	153

7. An Area of Justice – II. A Transnational Ne Bis in Idem Principle.....	155
Introduction.....	155
Interpretation of Finality in Light of Free Movement: A Single Status.....	161
Strict Application of Mutual Recognition.....	161
A Substantive Assessment of the Merits of the Case	165
Interpretation of Sameness in Light of Free Movement: A Single Space.....	167
Consequences of an Interpretation in Light of Free Movement:
A Multilevelled Calling to Account.....	170

PART IV SUPRANATIONAL WRONGS

8. Supranational Public Wrongs: The Limitations and Possibilities of a European Community.....	179
Introduction.....	179
Structural Limitations on an EU Supranational Community.....	181
Articulation of Public Wrongs – Limited Scope for EU Criminalisation.....	182
Communication of Public Wrongs: EU Criminal Law as Multilevelled.....	185
The Union Cannot Directly Impose Criminal Liability.....	186
Operating within National Criminal Justice Systems.....	189
The Emergence of Supranational Public Wrongs.....	192
European Public Goods.....	194
European Public Values	198
Framing National Criminal Law: Supranational Wrongs and Shared Wrongs.....	202
Conclusion.....	204
Conclusion: EU Citizenship, Criminal Law and the Restructuring of Community.....	207
Complementing Union Citizenship.....	209
Rights.....	209
Duties.....	211
Values.....	212
The Restructuring Political Community in the European Union:
Between National, Transnational and Supranational.....	213
The Primacy of National Communities	214
National Wrongs in Transnational Processes.....	215
Supranational Implications – Shared Rights, Shared Wrongs and Shared Punishment.....	216
Bibliography.....	218
Index	229