

Contents

| | |
|---|------|
| Preface to the Second Edition | viii |
| Acknowledgements | x |
| 1 Religions and the Challenge of Diversity | 1 |
| The religious factor | 1 |
| The challenge of diversity | 8 |
| A clash of civilizations? | 13 |
| Grassroots Christian responses to diversity | 14 |
| 2 Defining Religion: Social Conflicts and Sociological Debates | 17 |
| Scientology: authentic religion or imposture? | 18 |
| Baha'i: world faith or apostasy? | 20 |
| Advantages of being recognized as a religion | 21 |
| Disadvantages of status as a religion | 25 |
| Defining people as religious | 28 |
| Max Weber: on not defining religion | 30 |
| Emile Durkheim: defining religion sociologically | 31 |
| Contemporary sociological definitions of religion | 34 |
| Religion and definition in use | 38 |
| 3 Varieties of Religions Movement | 42 |
| Church and sect | 42 |
| Denominations and cults: tolerating diversity | 46 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| New religious movements | 50 |
| The limits of classification | 59 |
| 4 Secularization: The Social Insignificance of Religion? | 61 |
| Auguste Comte and the Law of Three Stages | 61 |
| Karl Marx and the projection theory of religion | 64 |
| Ernie Durkheim and the social functions of religion | 67 |
| Max Weber and the disenchantment of the world | 70 |
| Georg Simmel: an alternative classical view | 78 |
| Defining secularization | 80 |
| Secularization from within | 31 |
| Decline of community | 85 |
| Marginalization of charisma | 88 |
| Cultural amnesia | 89 |
| Pluralization, relativism and consumer choice | 90 |
| Reason, rationality and science | 92 |
| A consensus on dystopia? | 97 |
| 5 Secularization Challenged: A New Paradigm? | 100 |
| A secularization theorist recants | 100 |
| Believing without belonging | 101 |
| A new paradigm | 104 |
| Voluntarism according to Talcott Parsons | 106 |
| The demand for religion: a rational choice? | 109 |
| The supply of religion: the benefits of competition? | 111 |
| The Mormons: a new world faith? | 117 |
| Jehovah's Witnesses: overcoming the failure of prophecy | 123 |
| The new paradigm and the rise of the megachurches | 126 |
| The Pentecostals | 128 |
| 6 Fundamentalism | 131 |
| Bible believers | 132 |
| Fundamentalism and monotheism | 133 |
| Islamophobia | 138 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 7 Civil Religion and Political Ritual | 143 |
| Ritual and social integration: the legacy of Durkheim | 143 |
| In God We Trust: civil religion in the United States | 144 |
| A failure of civil religion: Canada | 148 |
| Symbolic division in society: Northern Ireland | 150 |
| Political religion in an atheist society: the Soviet Union | 153 |
| Political religion and charismatic leadership: | |
| Nazi Germany | 158 |
| Character and society | 160 |
| 8 Brainwashing, Consumer Protection and the State | 162 |
| Brainwashing - old and new | 162 |
| The power of the brainwashing metaphor | 165 |
| What new religious movements offer their recruits | 167 |
| Disengaging from new religious movements | 169 |
| Consumer protection and the regulation of abuses | 171 |
| Cult scares and the anti-cult movement | 173 |
| Doomsday cults: five case studies | 175 |
| Apocalypse and self-destruction | 181 |
| A role for cult watchers? | 188 |
| 9 Religious Identity and Meaning in Consumer Society | 190 |
| Individualism unchecked? | 190 |
| Individualism and authority: the Roman Catholic Church | 192 |
| Sexuality and gender | 196 |
| From religion to spirituality? | 210 |
| A New Age? | 212 |
| Religion and spirituality online | 215 |
| Consuming religion | 216 |
| Afterword: dialogues in a post-secular world | 221 |
| Bibliography | 223 |
| Index | 239 |