

1. CULTURAL HERITAGE, MONUMENTS AND IDENTITY CONSTRUCTION	11
Evolution of “cultural heritage” and “historical monument” in Romania Andreea Lazea	13
Monuments of Public Art and the Intercultural Dialogue. The Case of the Austrian Military Monument in Timișoara Barna Bodó	29
A Failed Monument: Collective Memory and Identity Association in the Case of Ioan Slavici Memorial Church Vasile Docea	49
Building a New Cultural and Artistic Identity in Timișoara in the 1960s-1970s Ileana Pintilie	59
Digitizing Banat’s cultural heritage. Concepts and potential of a regional digitization strategy Albert Weber	75
2. RECONSTRUCTING THE REGIONAL IDENTITY	97
Ethnic structures shaped by migration: The Serbian settlement of the Habsburg Empire until the 18th century Philipp Hochbaum	99
Images of the City of Timișoara in Local Identity Construction Simona Adam	113

The Banat Germans in the early 21st Century. Which Heritage? Which Memory? Which Identity?	123
Gwénola Sebaux
Reconstructing Urban Identity within the Programme European Capital of Culture. Best practices for Timișoara 2021 following the experience of winning cities	147
Corina Turșie
 3. LOCAL HISTORIOGRAPHY AS IDENTITARIAN DISCOURS	 173
The Monographic Research in the Serbian Banat	175
Mircea Măran
The Historical Monographs of Banat Germans as Identity Discourse	189
Vasile Docea
The Timișoara 1989 Case: A Turning Point in History and in Mass Media	201
Lucian-Vasile Szabo	