
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	7
Narrating and Theorising Memories of Migration	9
Mareike KÖNIG and Rainer OHLIGER
Facing Migration History in Europe: Between Oblivion and Representation	11
Dirk HOERDER
Europe's Many Worlds and Their Global Interconnections.	21
Commemorating Migrations since Early Modern Times	33
Alexander SCHUNKA
Forgotten Memories - Contested Representations: Early Modern Bohemian Migrants in Saxony.	35
Hanna SONKAJÄRVI
Multiple Attributions: The Foreigner as a Circumstantial Category in 18 th Century Strasbourg	47
Klaus WEBER
French Migrants into Loyal Germans: Huguenots in Hamburg (1685-1985).	59
Mareike KÖNIG
Celebrating the Kaiser's Birthday: German Migrants in Paris after the Franco-Prussian War 1870/71.	71
Troubled and Contested Memories	85
G. Daniel COHEN
Remembering Post-War Displaced Persons: From Omission to Resurrection	87
Pierre DE TRÉGOMAIN
Constructing Authenticity. Commemorative Strategy of the Transylvanian Saxons in West Germany's Early Years	99
Lavinia STAN
Media Discourses about Romanian Exile before and after 1989	113

Dovilė BUDRYTĖ
Democratisation of History? Remembering Stalinist Deportations and Repression in the Baltic States.	125
	135
Making Migrants Visible
Joachim BAUR
Commemorating Immigration in the Immigrant Society: Narratives of Transformation at Ellis Island and the Lower East Side Tenement Museum ..	137
Jan MOTTE and Rainer OHLIGER
Men and Women With(out) History? Looking for »Lieux de Mémoire« in Germany's Immigration Society.	147
Wladimir FISCHER
An Innovative Historiographic Strategy: Representing Migrants from Southeastern Europe in Vienna	161
Myriam CHERTI
Reconstructing the History of Moroccan Migration to the UK: An Oral History Approach.	169
Selected Bibliography.	179
List of Contributors.	184