

Contents

CHAPTER ONE

The Complex Terrain of Black and Woman in Undergraduate Education 1

A Book about Black Women Undergraduates	2
When and Where I Enter	4
Studying Black Women Undergraduates	7
Navigating Higher Education	8
The Role of Social Locations	9
Black Feminist Thought and Intersectionality	10
Cultural Capital, Schooling, and Black Women Undergraduates	14
The Settings	16
The Participants	17
Outline of the Chapters and Appendices	22
Chapters	22
Appendices	23

CHAPTER TWO

Historical and Modern-Day Contexts: Black Woman Undergraduates and the Discourse of Cultural Capital 25

Educating Black Women Undergraduates in Historical Contexts	27
Gender, Race, Class, and College in Historical Representations	27
Integration and the Law	30
Black Women Students in Contemporary Contexts	32
Negotiating Race, Class, and Gender in High School	32
Black Undergraduates in Colleges and Universities	34
Achievement and Resilience as Strategies for College Success	36
Conclusions	38

CHAPTER THREE

Black Undergraduate Women Utilizing the Sociological Imagination for College Success 41

The Sociological Imagination and Cultural Capital	43
Private and Public Issues in Higher Education: Being Prepared	44
Private and Public Issues in Higher Education: So-Called Acting White	52
Intersectional Talk and the Sociological Imagination	59
Race, Class, and Gender	59
Conclusions	63

CHAPTER FOUR

Cultures Clash: Black Women Undergraduates Negotiate Oppression 65

Speaking Up and Being Heard	66
Talking about Diversity and Multiculturalism in Higher Education	75
Defining the Terms	76
Multicultural Weekend	78
Diversity Policies	80
Negotiating Stereotypes	86
Conclusions	92

CHAPTER FIVE

Black Women Undergraduates Navigate Complex Alliances 95

High School Guidance Counselors	96
Guidance Counselors as Gatekeepers	98
Family Relationships and College Success	104
Parents: Coaches on the Sidelines	104
First-Generation Black Women Undergraduates	110
Mothers and Daughters	114
Professors	116
Conclusions	121

CHAPTER SIX

Black Women Undergraduates Shape Campus Policy and Practice 123

Classroom Practice	126
Know Who Your Students Are	126
Know the Many Ways Students Learn	127
Set Clear Expectations and Be Open to Student Input	128
Manage Interactions in the Classroom: Group Work	129
Manage Interactions in the Classroom: Voice	131
Institutional Practice and Inclusive Excellence	134
Staff Training	135
Training for Student Leaders	135
Alliance Building	136
Diversity Practices	137
Conclusions	139

CHAPTER SEVEN

Cultural Capital and College Success 141
Intersectionality and the Schooling Lives of Black Women Undergraduates 141
Reworking the Discourse of Cultural Capital 142
 The Sociological Imagination 143
 Negotiating Relationships 144
 Managing Cultural Clashes 146
Conclusions 146

APPENDIX A

Methods and Methodology:
A Qualitative Study of Black Women Undergraduates 149
Qualitative Research 149
Methodologies 150
My Place in This Research 153
Contexts 155
Collecting Data 156
Interviews 157
Questions and Answers 158
Snags in the Interview Process 160
Data Analysis 162
Limitations of the Study 162

APPENDIX B

The Lumina Project 165

APPENDIX C

Student Demographics 167

NOTES 169

REFERENCES 171

INDEX 183