

Contents

A Message from Tulsi Gabbard, the United States Congresswoman	vii
A Message from Ela R. Bhatt, Chancellor, Gujarat Vidyapith	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction: Revisiting Gandhi Debidatta Aurobinda Mahapatra and Yashwant Pathak	xv
1 Two Worlds: Gandhi and the Modern World Johan Galtung	1
2 Gandhi, International Relations, and War Debidatta Aurobinda Mahapatra	13
3 The Future of Humanity between War and Peace Abdelwahab Hechiche	37
4 Satyagraha and the Bodhisattva Way: Spiritual Training for Personal and Political Liberation Today Frank M. Tedesco	59
5 Swaraj as Blossoming and Satyagraha as Co-Realizations: Compassion, Confrontation and a New Art of Integration Ananta Kumar Giri	77

6	“God Is Not in Temples, So It Doesn’t Matter Who Enters Them”: Jiddu Krishnamurti’s Critique of Gandhi’s Ahimsa Principle and the Problem of Advaita Vedanta–Based Ethics	93
	Richard Grego
7	The Concept of Nonviolence in the Thinking of Leo N. Tolstoy and Mahatma Gandhi: Utopia or Reality?	111
	Anna Hamling
8	Sustainable Development and Tribal Populations: Spiritual and Gandhian Approach	125
	Ravi P. Bhatia
9	Policies for Ethnic Communities’ Assimilation in India: A Gandhian Perspective	137
	Bina Sengar
10	Caste Discrimination and Applicability of Gandhian Principle of Nonviolence: A Case Study of the Bhutanese Community of North Carolina	151
	Narayan B. Khadka
	Index	171
	About the Contributors	177