

CONTENTS

- 1 Introduction: Heritage in ‘Conflict-Time’ and Nation-Building in the Former Yugoslavia 1
Gruia Bădescu, Britt Baillie, and Francesco Mazzucchelli

Part I Remaking the Urban

- 2 Beyond Yugoslavia: Reshaping Heritage in Belgrade 27
Gruia Bădescu
- 3 Carving War onto the City: Monuments
to the 1992–95 Conflict in Sarajevo 55
Maja Musi
- 4 Heritage Reconstruction in Mostar: Minorities and Multiculturalism in Post-conflict Bosnia
and Herzegovina 83
Emily Gunzburger Makaš
- 5 The Limits of Affects: Defacing Skopje 2014 107
Goran Janev and Fabio Mattioli

Part II Rebordering Memory

- 6 Borders of Memory: Competing Heritages and Fractured Memoryscapes in Bosnia
and Herzegovina 131
Francesco Mazzucchelli

7	'Seeing Red'. Yugo-Nostalgia of Real and Imagined Borders Roberta Altin and Claudio Minca	157
8	Long Live Yugoslavia! War, Memory Activism, and the Heritage of Yugoslavia in Slovenia and in the Italo-Slovene Borderland Borut Klabjan	189
9	Religiously Nationalizing the Landscape in Bosnia and Herzegovina Robert M. Hayden and Mario Katić	215
10	The Politics of the Past in Kosovo: Divisive and Shared Heritage in Mitrovica Mattias Legnér and Simona Bravaglieri	247
Part III (Re)Membering: Monuments, Memorials and Museums
11	The Njegoš Chapel Versus the Njegoš Mausoleum—The Post-Yugoslav Ethnicization of Cultural Heritage in Montenegro Nikola Zečević	267
12	The Post-Yugoslav Kaleidoscope: Curatorial Tactics in the (Ethno) Nationalization of Second World War Memorial Museums in Croatia, Serbia, and Bosnia and Herzegovina Nataša Jagdhuhn	295
13	Locating Memorials: Transforming Partisan Monuments into Cultural Heritage Jonas Frykman	323
14	Vukovar's Memorials and the Making of Conflict-Time Britt Baillie	351
Index		377