

Contents

Acknowledgements | 7

Introduction | 9

The Philosophical Debate | 16

Structure of the Book | 23

Chapter 1:

Contested Rape | 25

1.1 Introduction | 25

1.2 Contestation and Conceptual Problems | 27

1.3 Essentially Contested Concepts | 54

Chapter 2:

Rape as a Cluster Concept | 65

2.1 Introduction | 65

2.2 Cluster Theory | 66

2.3 Reconsidering Family Resemblances and Clusters | 74

2.4 Problems | 86

Chapter 3:

Emancipatory Amelioration | 95

3.1 Introduction | 95

3.2 Conceptual Amelioration | 98

3.3 Developing Emancipatory Amelioration | 104

3.4 Possible Objections | 120

Chapter 4:

Rape and Ideology | 129

4.1 Introduction | 129

4.2 Locating Rape | 130

4.3 Rape and Sexist Ideology | 143

4.4 The Injustice of Rape | 164

Chapter 5:

Ameliorating the Concept of Rape | 173

5.1 Introduction | 173

5.2 Emancipatory Amelioration and Rape | 174

5.3 A Cluster Model of Rape | 179

Chapter 6:

Accountability and Solidarity | 203

6.1 Introduction | 203

6.2 Hermeneutical Injustice | 206

6.3 Questions of Accountability | 218

6.4 Emancipatory Solidarity | 230

Final Remarks: What to Do? | 249

Bibliography | 255