

Table of Contents

Preface.....	IX
1 Western Modernity and Singapore's National Ideology	1
1.1 The Story of Singapore	2
1.2 Western Modernization	10
1.3 Cultural Planning in Singapore	18
1.4 Plan of the Book	20
2 The Religious Studies Experiment	25
2.1 The Religious Knowledge Program	25
2.2 Leftist Christianity	28
2.3 Christian Evangelism	33
2.4 The Failure to Propagate Confucianism	37
2.5 Conclusion	49
3 Asian-style Democracy in Singapore	57
3.1 Singaporean Politics	58
3.2 Limits on Authoritarianism in a Modern Society	68
3.3 Political Reform	71
3.4 Popular Opposition	74
3.5 Conclusion	81
4 Strong Groups or Happy Individuals	87
4.1 The Nation	88
4.2 The Compassion Issue	90
4.3 The Cultural Hierarchy	96
4.4 Strong Groups and Confucianism	103
4.5 The Caring Professions	105
4.6 Conclusion	109
5 Singaporean Chinese Women: Learning to Love While Struggling for Equality.....	117
5.1 Women in the Traditional Chinese Family	117
5.2 Modernization and Gender Roles in Singapore.....	119
5.3 Strong Families.....	121

5.4	Romance, Love, and Marriage	127
5.5	The Women's Movement.....	133
5.6	Conclusion	139
6	Designing Chinese Culture: The Establishment and the Artists	145
6.1	Chinese Culture PAP-style	145
6.2	The Culture Business.....	154
6.3	Artistic Culture.....	157
6.4	Conclusion	167
7	Singapore's Future	173
7.1	The Dominant Ideology is Western Conservatism Asian-style..	173
7.2	Inconsistencies	183
7.3	The Counterculture	188
7.4	The Fate of the National Ideology	193
7.5	Lessons from Singapore.....	196
	References	205