
Contents

	Preface	vii
1	Introduction	1
	Positivism versus Critical Inquiry	3
	Ideology and Inquiry	5
	Ideology and Methodology	7
	The Power of the Researcher	9
	Research and Reciprocity	11
	Tensions between Participation and Observation	15
	Outline of the discussion	16
2	National Development, Poverty and the Environment	19
	I: DEVELOPMENT, POVERTY, ENVIRONMENT	19
	Achievements after Independence	22
	The Persistence of Poverty	25
	Poverty and the Ecological Crisis	28
	Ecological Crisis and the Model of Development	30
	II: DEVELOPMENT, ENVIRONMENT AND TRIBAL RESISTANCE	34
	The Model of 'Development'	35
	Ecological Marxism	37
	Resistance to Development: Party Politics versus Social Movements	38
	New Social Movements in India and Europe	39
	The Ideological Dimensions of Social Movements	42
	Indigenous People as Embodiments of Resistance	44
	The Formulation of an Agenda for Research	47
3	A History of Adivasi-State Relations	49
	Pre-eighteenth Century: The Rajput Invasion	54
	The Maratha Campaign against the Bhils	56

	The Rise of British Power	57
	The Policy of 'Pacification'	58
	Reasons for Resistance	61
	1857 and the Bhils	64
	Resistance and Rebel Consciousness	65
	Mathvad and Alirajpur under the British	67
	Changes in Land Use and Tenure	69
	The Origins of Anjanvara	71
	The Commercialization of Natural Resources	73
	Popular Resistance and the State	76
	Nationalism and the Independent State	78
	Domination in the Form of Caste Ideology	82
4	Bhilalas: Caste or Tribe?	85
	The Politics of Sociological Designation	86
	Hinduization among the Adivasis of the Nimar Plains	88
	Adivasis of the Hills	88
	The Historical Basis of Adivasi Identity	89
	The Religion of Bhilala Adivasis	90
	Bhilala Peasant Economy	91
	Distinctions between Tribe and Caste	93
	The Negotiation of Hinduization: The Mata Phenomenon	97
	Distinctions between Hill Adivasis and Bazaarias	103
5	Community and the Politics of Honour	106
	A Day in Binda's Life: 11 April 1991	107
	The Social Structure of Anjanvara: The Construction of Community	113
	Relations with Other Villages: Marriage	117
	Reciprocal Kin Relations: A Mystification?	121
	The Politics of Honour	125
	Feuds and the Economy of Honour	127
	Feuds as the Politics of Gender	130
	Honour and Caste Identity	132
	Feuds and Social Reproduction	133
6	Economy and Ecology	136
	Anjanvara: The Use of Physical Space	137

	The Farm Economy: Crops, Livestock, Forest and River	139
	The Agricultural Cycle	142
	Sustainability of Production	147
	Land Encroachment in the Forest: Nevad	149
	Nevad and the Ideology of Conservation	151
	Nevad and the Necessity of Resistance	154
	Seasonal Migration of the Hill Adivasis	156
	Participation in Markets	157
7	'In the Belly of the River': Nature and Ideology	160
	Religion and the Sacralization of Nature	161
	Environmental Action through Religion:
	Indal Pooja	162
	The Gayana as Environmental Theory	164
	Cultural Puzzles in the Gayana	167
	Contradictions between Beliefs and Action	168
	Acknowledging Theoretical Inadequacy:
	Bhilala Medicine	169
8	The Politics of the Sangath	175
	The Origins of the Sangath	176
	The Sangath's Political Analysis	177
	The Transformation of Consciousness	179
	The Sangath in Action: The Kiti Firing	184
	The Sangath in Anjanvara	187
	Self-reliance and Outside Leadership	188
	Engendering Resistance or Providing Services?	191
9	The Politics of the Andolan	197
	The History of Sardar Sarovar Project	199
	The Narmada Bachao Andolan: A Summary of Action	202
	Protest in the Narmada Valley	205
	State Repression against the Andolan	209
	The Andolan in Anjanvara	212
	The Andolan in Nimar	214
	Class Base of the Andolan in Nimar	219
	The Critique of Development and the Creation of Alternatives	222

10	Conclusions	229
	Summary of the Discussion	230
	Interpretations of 'Environment': Conflicting Perspectives	235
	Being and Ideology	237
	The Politics of Representation	240
	Conclusions	242
	Epilogue	245
	Appendix 1: Trees in the Forest around Anjanvara and their Uses	259
	Appendix 2: Gayana — The Bhilala Song of Creation	262
	A Glossary of Hindi and Bhilali Words	273
	Bibliography	275
	Index	284

List of Figures

1	The lower Narmada valley	xvi
2	Present-day map of Alirajpur indicating Anjanvara	50
3	Mathvad and adjoining states, circa AD 1800	52
4	The lineage of Anjanvara	114

Photographs by Rahul N. Ram

Illustrations by Orijit Sen