

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction	1
VERONIKA BILGER AND ILSE VAN LIEMPT
Part One Methods and Ethics in Institutional Settings
1 Methodological issues for the study of migrant incarceration in an era of discretion in law in the southern USA ROBERT F. BARSKY	25
2 Multi-perspective research on foreigners in prisons in Switzerland. CHRISTIN ACHERMANN	49
Part Two Rethinking Basic Research Methods
3 Different methods to research irregular migration RICHARD STARING	83
4 Challenges and strategies in empirical fieldwork with asylum seekers and migrant sex workers JANINE DAHINDEN AND DENISE EFIONAYI-MÄDER	98
5 Methodological and ethical dilemmas in research among smuggled migrants VERONIKA BILGER AND ILSE VAN LIEMPT	118
Part Three The Role of the Researcher
6 The ‘insider’ position: ethical dilemmas and methodological concerns in researching undocumented migrants with the same ethnic background EUGENIA MARKOVA	141

CONTENTS

7	The fieldworker as social worker: dilemmas in research with Moroccan unaccompanied minors NURIA EMPEZ	155
	Index	168