

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
1 Introduction: Conceptualising Secularisation 1974–2010: the Influence of Hugh McLeod Callum G. Brown and Michael Snape	1
2 Towards Eliminating the Concept of Secularisation: A Progress Report Jeffrey Cox	13
3 Implicit Understandings of Religion in Sociological Study and in the Work of Hugh McLeod Linda Woodhead	27
4 Protestant Migrations: Narratives of the Rise and Decline of Religion in the North Atlantic World c. 1650–1950 David Hempton	41
5 Protestantism, Monarchy and the Defence of Christian Britain 1837–2005 John Wolffe	57
6 Australia: Towards Secularisation and One Step Back David Hilliard	75
7 Secularisation or Resacralisation? The Canadian Case, 1760–2000 Nancy Christie and Michael Gauvreau	93
8 A Classic Case of De-Christianisation? Religious Change in Scandinavia c. 1750–2000 Erik Sidenvall	119
9 War, Religion and Revival: the United States, British and Canadian Armies during the Second World War Michael Snape	135

10	Women and Religion in Britain: the Autobiographical View of the Fifties and Sixties Callum G. Brown	159
11	The Strange Death of Dutch Christendom Peter van Rooden	175
12	Europe in the Age of Secularisation Lucian Hölscher	197
13	Secularisation in the UK and the USA Steve Bruce	205
14	Thinking Broadly and Thinking Deeply: Two Examples of the Study of Religion in the Modern World Grace Davie	219
	Index	233