Contents

| Notes on Contributors |   | vii |
|-----------------------|---|-----|
| 1                     | Introduction: Conceptualising Secularisation 1974–2010: the Influence of Hugh McLeod Callum G. Brown and Michael Snape          | 1   |
| 2                     | Towards Eliminating the Concept of Secularisation:A Progress ReportJeffrey Cox  | 13  |
| 3                     | Implicit Understandings of Religion in Sociological Study and in the Work of Hugh McLeod  Linda Woodhead                        | 27  |
| 4                     | Protestant Migrations: Narratives of the Rise and Decline of Religion in the North Atlantic World c. 1650–1950David Hempton | 41  |
| 5                     | Protestantism, Monarchy and the Defence of Christian Britain 1837–2005  John Wolffe   | 57  |
| 6                     | Australia: Towards Secularisation and One Step BackDavid Hilliard   | 75  |
| 7                     | Secularisation or Resacralisation? The Canadian Case, 1760–2000 Nancy Christie and Michael Gauvreau                             | 93  |
| 8                     | A Classic Case of De-Christianisation? Religious Change in Scandinavia c. 1750–2000Erik Sidenvall                           | 119 |
| 9                     | War, Religion and Revival: the United States, British and CanadianArmies during the Second World WarMichael Snape       | 135 |

| 10    | the Fifties and Sixties  Callum G. Brown   | 159 |
|-------|--|-----|
| 11    | The Strange Death of Dutch Christendom Peter van Rooden  | 175 |
| 12    | Europe in the Age of Secularisation  Lucian Hölscher   | 197 |
| 13    | Secularisation in the UK and the USA Steve Bruce   | 205 |
| 14    | Thinking Broadly and Thinking Deeply: Two Examples of the Study of Religion in the Modern World Grace Davie | 219 |
| Index |  | 233 |