

Introduction . . . . .	1
Alfred Smudits
Music Sociology After Mass Modernity . . . . .	7
Alfred Smudits
1 Modernity and Modernisation. . . . .	8
2 Mass Modernity . . . . .	10
3 Sociology of Music and Modernisation . . . . .	11
4 Music Sociology After Mass Modernity. . . . .	14
5 Final Remarks . . . . .	19
References . . . . .	20
Musicology, Sociology and Digitisation . . . . .	23
Peter J. Martin
1 The ‘New’ Musicology . . . . .	23
2 The Work of Kurt Blaukopf . . . . .	29
3 Popular Music Studies . . . . .	33
4 Summary and Conclusions . . . . .	38
References . . . . .	38
Objects, Belief, and the Sociologist: The Sociology of Art as a Work-To-Be-Done . . . . .	41
Antoine Hennion
1 Mediation as an Ethnomethodology . . . . .	42
2 A Byway . . . . .	44
3 Writing ‘from ...’? . . . . .	46
4 The Perspective of the Object . . . . .	47

5	Rediscovering Belief? . . . . .	49
6	First Test: Singing Lessons . . . . .	52
7	Second Test: On the Cutting Edge , the Jazzman's Improvisation . . . . .	55
	References . . . . .	59
	Exploring Gender in Music ... to Better Grasp Musical Work . . . . .	61
	Marie Buscato
1	Social Stereotypes Shape Musical Reception and Recognition . . . . .	63
2	Social Networks Play a Key Role in Making Musical Work Possible . . . . .	67
3	Musical Work Requires the Full Commitment of the Artist's Family . . . . .	69
4	Public Policies and Legal Rules Have a Strong Impact on Musical Work . . . . .	71
5	Musical Work Must Be Explored at Its Margins . . . . .	72
6	Conclusions . . . . .	74
7	Potential Limits (to Be Developed) . . . . .	75
	References . . . . .	75
	Musical Cosmopolitanism, Bodies and Aesthetic Cultures . . . . .	79
	Motti Regev
1	Cosmopolitan Bodies . . . . .	83
2	Musical Knowledge . . . . .	84
3	Pop-rock . . . . .	85
4	Musical Cosmopolitan Bodies of Pop-rock . . . . .	87
5	Further Thoughts on Music Sociology . . . . .	90
	References . . . . .	92
	Musical Language . . . . .	95
	Howard S. Becker
1	Faulkner, Becker and Understanding Contemporary Working (Popular) Musicians . . . . .	97
2	Arom and the Music of Central Africa . . . . .	100
3	A Final Problem . . . . .	104
	References . . . . .	109

The Unsung Work of Music Sociology? .....	111
Tia DeNora
1 Vienna's Institut—Caldron of Current Music Sociology .....	112
2 Farewell to Dualist Conceptions—Music Sociology's Irreductions.....	113
3 To Ask, 'What Can Music Do?' Is to Ask, 'What Can Music Sociology Do?' .....	119
4 Songs in Praise of Music Sociology .....	133
References.....	134
 Music Sociology in the GDR: Under Conditions of Political Dictatorship, Despite of Political Dictatorship ..... 139
Christian Kaden
1 History.....	139
2 Theory.....	148
3 Epilogue .....	154
References.....	155