

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Key Acronyms	xi
Introduction	1
Chapter 1: Repression, Rebellion, and Nationalism: Northern Mali/Azawad Through 2011	9
From French Sudan to Mali	10
The Tuaregs and the Keita Regime: Rebellion and Repression	12
The Ishumar Generation: Drought, Emigration, and Territoriality	15
The 1990s: Revolution, Democracy, and Illusory Peace	18
The ATT Years: Simmering Rebellion and Institutional Decay	21
Chapter 2: War and Peace in Northern Mali/Azawad: The MNLA, October 2011–December 2015	31
The Nascent MNLA	32
War and Government Collapse: The MNLA's High Tide	34
Jihadist Takeover	37
International Intervention	38
The Start of the Political Process	40
One Step Forward, Two Steps Back: Resurgence of Fighting	42
Renewed Push to a Peace Agreement	46

Enduring Conflict	47
Chapter 3: The MNLA on Facebook: Social Media Outreach by the Numbers	53
The MNLA on Social Media	54
The Pro-MNLA Facebook Community: Quantitative Methodology	55
Defining the Dataset: Accounts	56
Defining the Dataset: Posts	60
Posts Over Time: Results and Discussion	68
General Discussion and Conclusions	74
Chapter 4: A Comparative Look at the MNLA's Use of Social Media	79
The 2011 Egyptian Revolution	79
The Islamic State	87
Parsing Structure and Agency in Social Media Use	92
Chapter 5: Dominant Pro-MNLA Discourse Frames and Identity
on Facebook	97
Micro Discourse Analysis of Groups in the Middle East and Africa	97
Frames and Framing	98
The Genocidal State Frame: Construction	99
The Genocidal State Frame: Activation	102
The Anti-Jihadist Frame: Construction	105
The Anti-Jihadist Frame: Activation	107
The Long Struggle Frame: Construction	108
The Long Struggle Frame: Activation	111
Frames, Community, and Identity	112
Chapter 6: Sacred Visual Motifs in Pro-MNLA Facebook Discourse	115
Durkheim, the Sacred, and Symbolism	116
The Azawadian Flag	117
The Azawadian Woman	121
The Nomadic Lifestyle	124
The MNLA, Symbolic Motifs, Violence, and the Construction of a Society	127
Chapter 7: Mali Since 2015: A Failing Peace Process and the Death of the
MNLA's Ideology	131
The Agreement for Peace and Reconciliation	132
Implementing the Agreement: Comprehensive Failure, Payroll Peace	135
The Agreement as a Payroll Peace: Set Up to Fail	137
Post-Agreement Mali and the Death of the MNLA's Political Ideology	143
Conclusion: Change Without Resolution	149

Appendix 1: Full Texts of Official Social Media Posts Referenced in Chapter 5	153
Appendix 2: Links to Selected Images Posted or Shared by Official Accounts Referenced in Chapter 6	165
Select Bibliography	167
Index	179