

Contents

List of Illustrations and Tables	vii
----------------------------------	-----

Part I. Introduction

CHAPTER 1

Multiple Moralities: Discourses, Practices, and Breakdowns in Post-Soviet Russia	3
Jarrett Zigon

CHAPTER 2

Exploring Russian Religiosity as a Source of Morality Today	16
Alexander Agadjanian

Part II. Multiple Moralities

CHAPTER 3

Post-Soviet Orthodoxy in the Making: Strategies for Continuity Thinking among Russian Middle-aged School Teachers	27
Agata Ladykowska

CHAPTER 4

The Politics of Rightness: Social Justice among Russia's Christian Communities	48
Melissa L. Caldwell

CHAPTER 5

An Ethos of Relatedness: Foreign Aid and Grassroots Charities in Two Orthodox Parishes in North-Western Russia	67
Detelina Tocheva

CHAPTER 6

"A Lot of Blood Is Unrevenged Here": Moral Disintegration in Post-War Chechnya	92
Ieva Raubisko

CHAPTER 7
Morality, Utopia, Discipline: New Religious Movements and Soviet Culture	119
Alexander A. Panchenko
CHAPTER 8
Constructing Moralities around the Tsarist Family	146
Kathy Rousselet
CHAPTER 9
St. Xenia as a Patron of Female Social Suffering: An Essay on Anthropological Hagiology	168
Jeanne Kormina and Sergey Shtyrkov
CHAPTER 10
Built with Gold or Tears? Moral Discourses on Church Construction and the Role of Entrepreneurial Donations	191
Tobias Köllner
AFTERWORD
Multiple Moralities, Multiple Secularisms	214
Catherine Wanner
Notes on Contributors	226
Index	229