

East European Identities in the 19th and 20th Century

edited by

Arnold Suppan and Richard Lein

LIT

Index of Contents

Preface by the Austrian Federal Minister of Sciences and Research	7
Marija Wakounig
The Institute of East European History, University of Vienna	9
Gary Cohen
The Center for Austrian Studies (CAS), University of Minnesota	15
Amir Eshel
The Stanford University Forum on Contemporary Europe	19
Franz A. J. Szabo
The Wirth Institute for Austrian and Central European Studies University of Alberta	25
Günther J. Bischof
Center for Austrian Culture and Commerce - CenterAustria University of New Orleans	31
Elisheva Moatti
Center for Austrian Studies, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem	37
Dieter A. Binder
Central European Studies, Andrásy Gyula University Budapest	51
Lisa A. Peschel, (University of Minnesota)
Survivor Testimony on the Cultural Life of the Terezín Ghetto	55
David Schriffl, (University of Vienna)
Austrian-Slovak Relations from 1945 to 1968.	75
András Sziklai, (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem)
The Jewish Theme in the Relationship of Sigmund Freud and Sándor Ferenczi, In the mirror of the Garden and the Workshop	91
Anat Varon, (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem)
Franz Werfel and the Search for Identity	117
Börris Kuzmany, (University of Vienna)
The Town of Brody in the Course of the Long 19th Century.	135
Marion Wieser, (University of New Orleans)
Selected Observations on the Influence of Religion on the 2006 Midterm Elections	149
Susanne Cohen-Weisz, (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem)
The suitcases are unpacked:	169

Eva R Hudecova, (University of Minnesota)
The Witness Who May Not Have Been There	197
Nina Paulovičová, (University of Alberta)
“Her way among the higher things...”	207
Richard Lein, (University of Vienna)
The “betrayal” of the k.u.k. Infantry regiment 28.	231