

Contents

Acknowledgements	x
Introduction	1
PART I Some Schools of Social Theory: Marx and Weber to Gadamer and Ricoeur	9
1 Capitalism and Socialism: Weber's Dialogue with Marx Wolfgang J. Mommsen	14
2 Georg Simmel: Modernity as an Eternal Present David Frisby	23 -
3 The Social and Political Thought of Antonio Gramsci Richard Bellamy	32
4 The World in a Text: Lévi-Strauss's Tristes Tropiques Clifford Geertz	38
5 Althusser and the Problem of Determinations Michèle Barrett	44
6 Gadamer and Ricoeur on Hermeneutics Susan Ilekman	49
PART D Solidarity, Interaction and Social Practice	55
7 What is Ethnomethodology? Harold Garfinkel	62

vi Contents

8	Erving Goffman on Ritual and Solidarity in Social Life Randall Collins	71
9	Elements of the Theory of Structuration Anthony Giddens	79
10	Institutional Reflexivity and Modernity Anthony Giddens	89
11	Structures, Habitus and Practices Pierre Bourdieu	95
12	Social Space and Symbolic Power Pierre Bourdieu	111
13	Rational Choice Theory Jon Elster	121
PART III Critical Theory of Modernity		127
14	Ideology and Modern Culture John Thompson	133
15	The Tasks of a Critical Theory Jiirgen Habermas	142
16	The Normative Content of Modernity Jiirgen Habermas	150
17	Habermas and Lyotard Richard Rorty	160
18	Foucault and Marxism Mark Poster	172
PART IV Feminism, Gender and Subjectivity		181
19	Foucault, Feminism and the Body Lois McNay	188
20	The Case of Habermas and Gender Nancy Fraser	201
21	Feminism and Modernism Janet Wolff	213
22	Post-postmodernism? Theorizing Gender Sylvia Walby	225

23	Feminism and Psychoanalytic Theory Nancy Chodorow	237
1A	Death of the Subject? Agnes Heller	247

PART V	Modernity, Democracy, Social Movements	259
---------------	---	-----

25	The End of Organized Capitalism Scott Lash and John Urry	267
26	World-systems Analysis Immanuel Wallerstein	276
27	Surveillance and Modernity Christopher Dandeker	287
28	The Future of Democracy Norberto Bohhio	295
29	What Should Democracy Mean Today? David Held	304
30	Democracy: From City-states to a Cosmopolitan Order? David Held	313
31	Class, Environmental and Social Movements Boris Frankel	321
32	Ecological Communication Niklas Luhmann	326
33	The Green Political Programme Robert Cioodin	332
34	The Naturalistic Fallacy of the Ecological Movement Ulrich Beck	342

PART VI	Modernity and Postmodernity	347
----------------	------------------------------------	-----

35	Modernity and Ambivalence Zygmunt Bauman	351
36	The Consumer Society Jean Baudrillard	362
37	The Postmodern: A Transparent Society? Gianni Vattimo	367

viii Contents

38	Against Postmodernism Alex Callinicos	373
39	Modernity and the Holocaust Zygmunt Bauman	387
	Index	394