

Contents

List of illustrations	PAS^e	x
Acknowledgements		xi
Introduction		1
Part I: Representations of childhood and adolescence in France
1 'Ego documents' and the French historian in the twenty-first century		17
Personal diaries		18
Family correspondences		20
Autobiographies		21
Conclusion		34
2 Into the limelight: new conceptions of childhood and adolescence		36
The length of childhood and adolescence		37
The nature of childhood and adolescence		45
The significance of childhood and adolescence		67
Conclusion		68
3 Growing up in theory and in practice		70
The Ages of Man: growing up in stages		72
From the cradle to the grave: growing up according to the folklore model		76
Conclusion		87
4 Turning points in a life: the autobiographical model		89
Getting started: the first memory		91
Alone in the world		93
Seeing the light		99
Grown up?		102
Conclusion		103

Part II: Growing up among family and friends

5	The demographic context: family forms in modern France	107
	The historical debate	109
	The findings of recent research	110
	Conclusion	113
6	Of mothers and motherhood	115
	The child-mother relationship	116
	Exalting motherhood	119
	Attachment during infancy	123
	Mothers as teachers	132
	Mothers and sons	136
	Mothers and daughters	139
	Conclusion	141
7	Of fathers, fatherhood, kin and discipline	143
	Fathers and fatherhood	143
	Relationships with kin	155
	Discipline and control	161
	Conclusion	166
8	'Small memories' from childhood	168
	Living in a material world	168
	Illness and death	176
	Private pleasures	184
	Conclusion	194
9	The society of children and youth	195
	La société enfantine	196
	La jeunesse	204
	Conclusion	214

Part III: Moving towards adulthood

10	School, apprenticeship and work	217
	Work versus school: in the countryside	218
	Work versus school: in the towns	229
	Conclusion: schooling the people	237
11	A 'long' childhood in the secondary schools	239
	'Prisons' for children and adolescents?	241
	Education for girls	246
	Conclusion	251

Contents	ix
12 Into 'adult' ³ territory: sex, politics and religion	252
Establishing identities	253
Sex and marriage	269
Conclusion	284
Conclusion	286
Bibliography	290
Index	307