

Contents

Edith Franke Acknowledgements	VII
Entering a Complex	1
Ramona Jelinek-Menke and Edith Franke Dynamics of Religious Things in Museums: Introduction to a Research Area and a Cooperative Alliance	3
Edith Franke and Anna Matter Negotiating Religion in Museums	23
Gallery I: Religious Things and Social Contexts – Discovering an Entanglement in the Museum	39
Mirko Roth “OBJECTION?!”: The Concept of Sociomateriality and its Consequences for museumised Objects	41
Peter J. Bräunlein A God on Display: On the Agency of ‘Living Things’ in the Museum	55
Bärbel Beinhauer-Köhler Social Practices in Museums: Near and Middle Eastern Historical Dimensions	69
Gallery II: Materialisation of Social Processes – Analysing Musealisation	83
Ekaterina Teryukova Museum Collections as a Research Source for the Study of Religion: From the History of the State Museum of the History of Religion (St Petersburg, Russia)	85
Kerstin Johannsen Move Objects to Shift Meaning: Tracing the Relocation of a Painting by Oswald Onghers in Frankfurt Cathedral	95

Leila Tavangar Ranjbar
Social History of an Elephant Oil Lamp in the Āstān-e Quds-e Rażavī Museum	107
Susanne Rodemeier
An object of real value? Transformation from Adu Satua to Idol to Ar 006	123
Ferdinand Liefert
Why are Korean village guardians exhibited in an institution managed by a Japanese new religion? The Intertwined Contexts of the Tenri University Sankōkan Museum	139
Pardis Eskandaripour
Dealing with Rose and Romance: Challenges in the Exhibition of Islamic Objects in Ethnological Museums	153
Alisha Meininghaus
Magic everywhere? On the Conceptualisation of Jewish Amulets in Museums	169
Gallery III:
Social Transformation by Religious Museum Things – Reflecting Museum Mediation and the Social Environment of Religious Things	181
Yuriko Yamanaka
Dynamics of Religious Objects in and outside Museums: How Material Culture of Islam is ‘Framed’ in Japan	183
Ramona Jelinek-Menke and Maïke Sieler
#Ganeshaontour: The Study of Religions and Infotainment on Instagram	201
Léontine Meijer-van Mensch, Edith Franke and Ramona Jelinek-Menke
“We don’t collect objects, we collect relationships.”
An Interview with Léontine Meijer-van Mensch about liquid museums , implicated communities , and the shared stewardship of Religious Objects	215
Contributors	229