

Contents

---

List of tables	page xi
Acknowledgements	xii
Maps
‘Alpine and Danubian Reichsgaue’, 1939	xiii
Greater Vienna, 1939	xiv
 Introduction	 I
Peculiarities of Austrian historiography	I
Fascism and the working class	4
Resistance and society	9
The First Austrian Republic: society and economy	12
Aims, methods and sources	15
 I Austrian fascisms, ‘Austrofascism’ and the working class	 19
Austrian politics	19
The radical Right before 1914	20
Austrian fascisms and the working class in the First Republic	26
The working class on the defensive: economic and political crisis and the rise of fascism 1927–1933	30
Civil war and the establishment of dictatorship 1932–1934	40
Dictatorship and opposition 1934–1938	43
 2 Economic integration and political opposition between the Anschluss and the war	 48
Problems of political resistance 1938–1939	50
Unkept promises and incipient disaffection: problems of economic integration	56
Popular disappointment and developments in labour discipline	61
 3 The war economy and the changing workforce
1939–1945	68
Securing a supply of foreign labour	71
Women	77
 4 Work discipline in the war economy	 86
War economy measures	88
Refusing to work: insubordination and breach of contract in the war economy	93
	ix

x	Contents
	Work discipline among foreign workers	99
	Sabotage and resistance	102
5	Popular opinion and political protest in working-class communities	109
	Anti-Nazi propaganda and dissenting opinion	112
	' Führerbeleidigung ': lèse-majesté in the Third Reich	116
	The little Hitlers: people, party and protest	118
	Hitler, the war and the workers	121
	The standard of living and civilian morale	128
	Towards demoralisation and defeat	130
	A 'national community'?	132
	Conclusion	135
	Notes	142
	Select bibliography	171
	Index	185

Tables

---

0.1 Distribution of resident population in each economic sector	page 13
0.2 The Viennese population according to economic sector, 1910-1939	14 ✓
0.3 Industrial workers in Vienna 1939 as a proportion of total population	14 ✓
0.4 Distribution of resident population by economic sector in the federal provinces	15
1.1 Industrial disputes in Austria, 1927-1932	32
1.2 Trade union membership in Austria, 1927-1931	33
1.3 Parliamentary elections in Austria, 1923-1930	34
1.4 Elections to the Nationalrat 1930: Vienna	35
1.5 Support for German nationalism and Nazism in Vienna, 1919-1932	38
2.1 Unemployment in Austria, 1924-1938	57
3.1 Foreign workers in the 'Ostmarkgaue', 25 April 1941	73
3.2 Labour shortages in Upper Danube, Winter 1940-1941	74
3.3 Foreign workers in Upper Danube, 1942-1944	77
3.4 Austrian industrial workforce, 1941-1944	81
3.5 Women's share of industrial employment: Austria and the Reich, 1939-1944	83
4.1 Gestapo arrests for labour discipline offences: Vienna and Lower Austria, January-June 1941	100
4.2 Arrests for work stoppages in Vienna and Lower Austria, February 1943-March 1944	101
5.1 Food allocation per head in Vienna, 1942-1944 (kg)	129