

Contents

Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction	1

I: Political Communication

Editor's Introduction	9
1. Introduction to Political Communication	15
2. Changing Images: The Role of Communications in the Process of Modernization	25
3. Newsmen's Fantasies, Audiences, and Newswriting	29
4. Deterrence as an Influence Process	47
5. Contacts and Influence	59
6. American Politics: Congress and Its Constituents	91
7. Trends in Content Analysis Today: A Summary	119

Part II: Societal Impact

Editor's Introduction	161
8. Foresight and Hindsight: The Case of the Telephone	165
9. Communications Technology and Land Use	193
10. The Mass Media and Politics in the Modernization Process	207
11. Four Unnatural Institutions and the Road Ahead	227

Part III: Technology, Policy, and Freedom

Editor's Introduction	241
12. Tracking the Flow of Information	249
13. The Public and the Polity	263
14. Citizen Feedback in Political Philosophy	291
15. Communication and Integrated Planning	305

16.	Technology and Confusion: The Satellite Broadcast Controversy in the U.N.	313
17.	From Gutenberg to Electronics: Implications for the First Amendment	329
18.	Policies for Freedom	339
	Bibliography of the Works of Ithiel de Sola Pool	365
	Index	387