

Contents

Preface and acknowledgements	page vii
1 Introduction	1
2 From the habitus to ethical dispositions	22
3 Recognition and distribution	52
4 Concepts of class: clearing the ground	70
5 Struggles of the social field	95
6 Moral and immoral sentiments and class	139
7 Responses to class I: egalitarianism, respect(ability), class pride and moral boundary drawing	169
8 Responses to class II: explanations, justifications and embarrassment	187
9 Conclusions and implications	213
Bibliography	233
Index	243