

Academic and Professional Identities in Higher Education

The Challenges of a
Diversifying Workforce

Edited by George Gordon
and Celia Whitchurch

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Series Editors' Introduction	ix
Notes on Contributors	xiii
Preface	xvii
Part I: Contexts and Concepts	1
1 Introduction: Change and Continuity in Academic and Professional Identities	3
MARY HENKEL
2 Global Contexts	13
GEORGE GORDON
3 Envisioning Invisible Workforces: Enhancing Intellectual Capital	35
GARY RHOADES
4 Innovative University Management	55
JANE USHERWOOD
Part II: Implications for Institutions	69
Introduction	71
GEORGE GORDON
5 Evolving Academic Career Pathways in England	77
TONY STRIKE
6 Managing Academic and Professional Careers in Japan	99
JUN OBA
7 Being an Academic in Contemporary South Africa	113
PATRICIA SMIT AND KINGSTON NYAMAPFENE

vi • Contents

8	The Impact of Changing Recruitment Practices on Academic Profiles CHRISTINE MUSSELIN	125
Part III: Implications for Individuals		139
	Introduction GEORGE GORDON	141
9	Traditions of Academic Professionalism and Shifting Academic Identities CRAIG MCINNIS	147
10	Convergence and Divergence in Professional Identities CELIA WHITCHURCH	167
11	The Changing Roles and Identities of Library and Information Services Staff DEREK LAW	185
Part IV: Challenging Boundaries		199
	Introduction CELIA WHITCHURCH	201
12	Rethinking Faculty Work and Workplaces JUDITH M. GAPPÀ	207
13	Developing Higher Education Professionals: Challenges and Possibilities ROBIN MIDDLEHURST	223
14	The Challenges of a Diversifying Workforce CELIA WHITCHURCH	245
	Index	257